COURSE OPTIONS FOR VISITING STUDENTS

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Economics at Royal Holloway, University of London is among the top in the UK for research excellence and is a leading teaching department. In the 2008 Research Assessment Exercise (RAE), 80% of the Department's research submitted was ranked as world-leading or internationally excellent (rated 3* and 4*). Members of staff regularly publish in the top economics journals and all courses are lectured by members of staff who are in active research in that field. Students are therefore assured of high quality teaching given by specialists

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

The below listed courses are open to all Study Abroad, International Exchange and Erasmus students, provided sufficient previous experience and knowledge as stated in the individual course prerequisites can be evidenced.

Level 1 courses: There are no formal pre-requisites for level 1 courses, however a good mathematical background is seen as very beneficial to students.

Level 2 courses: A solid foundation in micro and macroeconomics is required for Level 2 courses, as well as completion of a first year undergraduate mathematics/statistics course for economics.

Level 3 courses: Advanced knowledge and extensive experience in the subject area is required for level 3 courses; at least two years of Economics, Econometrics and maths for Economics knowledge is expected for 3rd year courses. Please note that these are advanced courses, typically equal to senior year/graduate level in the USA.

The information contained in the course outlines on the following pages is correct at the time of publication but may be subject to change as part of our policy of continuous improvement and development.
