

Celebrating Sustainability at RHUL

Wednesday 18th February 2009

Windsor Building 1-05

Programme

- 9:30-10:00 Registration and refreshments
- 10:00-10:10 Welcome
Dr Laura J. Spence, Director, CRIS
- 10:10-11:00 Session A: Chair: Dorothea Kleine
- No Shame: Creative Consumers and the Ethics of Disposal (Alan Bradshaw, Andreas Chatzidakis and Pauline Maclaran, Management)
 - Response of Humans to Abrupt Environmental Transitions (RESET*) (Martin Menzies, Earth Sciences)
 - Creative Capitalism: An old wine in a new bottle, a fad or fashion? (John Ahwere-Bafo, Management)
 - Sustainability at RHUL (Andy Hix, Sustainability Officer, Facilities Management)
- Discussion
- 11:00-11:10 Break & Posters
- 11:10- 12:00 Session B. Chair: Martin Menzies
- Ethics 2.0 - Using the Internet to empower ethical consumers (Dorothea Kleine, Geography)
 - Sustainability education: Not another 'aside' subject (Jose-Rodrigo Cordoba-Pachon, Management)
 - Climate hindcasting from cave records (David Matthey, Earth Sciences)
 - Stakeholder dialogue through the internet: An empirical analysis of stakeholder engagement initiatives of UK FTSE100 companies (Leonardo Rinaldi with Alessia D'Andrea and Jeffrey Unerman, Management)
- Discussion

- 12:00-13:00 CRIS Re-Launch
Prof. Rob Kemp, Deputy Principal (Academic Affairs)
Followed by Lunch Reception & Posters
- 13:00-13:45 Keynote speech. Chair: David Bevan
Standards as a means of managing and reporting sustainability: a systems thinking approach
Prof. David Jackman, Chair, BSI Committee on Sustainable Development. Primary author, BS8900 Managing Sustainable Development
- 13:45-14:25 Session C. Chair: Jeffrey Unerman
Doctoral Students
- Achieving Sustainable Transport in UK; Car Consumption amongst University of London Students (Chijioke Uba, Management)
 - Poverty as ontological force (Margherita Pascucci, English)
 - Consumers' Socially Responsible Decisions from a Cultural Perspective (Nuria Rodriguez Priego, Management)
- Discussion
- 14:25-14:35 Break & posters
- 14:35-15:45 Session D. Chair: Mary Dengler
- Using Tradition to Build Sustainable Futures for Marginalised Children: Messages from Georgia (Anna Gupta, Health and Social Care)
 - Placing a value on sustainability (Jeffrey Unerman, Management)
 - Urbanisation and Global Environmental Change (David Simon, Geography)
 - Answers in the Wind: Atmospheric Monitoring at Royal Holloway (Srimathy Sriskantharajah, Earth Sciences)
 - Active learning approaches to sustainability (Mary Dengler, Geography)
- Discussion
- 15:45-16:00 Closing remarks. Chair: Laura Spence
The future of sustainability at RHUL?

Posters

Anna Flood, Archives	"All was an experiment": Community and sustainability at Royal Holloway, 1886-1950
Katie Willis, Geography	MSc Practising Sustainable Development
Lutz Preuss, Management & Mary Dengler, Geography	MSc Sustainability and Management
José-Rodrigo Cordoba & Laura Spence, Management	Centre for Research into Sustainability
Katie Willis, Geography	Centre for Developing Areas Research
Klaus Dodds, Geography	Politics and Environment Research Group
Ahuvia Kahane, Classics	Humanities and Arts Research Centre
Mark Exworthy, Management	Centre for Public Services Organisations
Mary Dengler and Danielle Schreve Geography	Global Change and Sustainable European Landscape Management Project