STANFORD UNIVERSITY'S MEMORIAL CHURCH

Stanford University's Memorial Church was one of the earliest and is still among the most prominent interdenominational churches in the West. Its construction was completed in 1903. Today, regular multi-faith services are held there, in addition to denominational and non-denominational Christian services. The Memorial Church serves as a venue for a number of musical events each year. For further information please visit www.stanford.edu/group/religiouslife/memchu.html

CHOIR OF ROYAL HOLLOWAY

Described by The Times as "truly fabulous" and "breathtakingly expressive," the Choir of Royal Holloway is one of the finest mixed-voice collegiate choirs in the UK.

In recent years the Choir has undertaken over 25 tours, including across Europe and the east coast of the USA, where it has featured in music festivals and broadcast on local radio and television. Following the success of their CDs on the Naxos and Signum labels, the Choir now records exclusively for Hyperion Records.

Their latest release, Time is endless, features the music of the contemporary Lithuanian composer Vytautas Miškinis and has already received outstanding reviews from Gramophone, Classic Fm Magazine and the BBC.

The Choir regularly performs with the London Mozart Players (LMP) orchestra including the première of a new oratorio from American composer Carson Cooman in the Cadogan Hall in 2009. The Choir has also worked with the period instrument ensembles Florilegium, Devon Baroque and the RCM Baroque Orchestra.

BOOKING

If you would like to attend the US Alumni Reunion, we ask for a donation of £30 per person (approximate equivalent of $46.50) to cover costs to the American Foundation for Royal Holloway and Bedford New College. As I am sure you can appreciate, in order to gain tax relief for US based alumni the Foundation has to have a separate website to maintain a separate charitable status to the College.

We therefore ask that you register for the event here www.rhul.ac.uk/For-Alumni/eventreg and also donate to the American Foundation for Royal Holloway and Bedford New College here www.afrbnc.org/2.html

The booking deadline is 1 April 2011. You will receive confirmation two weeks before the event.
