

Minutes recorded in the Senior Student's notebook, 17 October 1919

Catalogue reference: BC/AS/121/2

Transcript:

The Principal said that there was still some prejudice against women's colleges although it was rapidly dying down, so each of us owed it to the college, that we should try and make as good an impression as we could – we should do our best to dress nicely and do our hair well, for these outside signs are very important, and are often used for judging character.