Practicalities

The conference will take place on the second and third floors of Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU (you can google WC1E 7HU to get an exact position). It’s in the Bloomsbury area of London, which is well served with travel links and hotels.

The nearest tube stations are Tottenham Court Road, Goodge Street, Euston Square and Russell Square – which are each about a 5 minutes’ walk from the venue. Senate House is also within 20 minutes’ walk of Euston, St Pancras, and Kings Cross train stations.
There is a £10 fee for the conference to cover catering costs. Attendees may indicate on their registration form if they wish to apply for a bursary to cover this. This fee does not apply to speakers.

You will need to book your own accommodation. We will be able to process claims for travel and accommodation expenses after the conference has taken place – please retain all of your original receipts for this purpose. Although we cannot guarantee that the full amount of your expenses will be covered, we aim to make a contribution to everyone who requires assistance.
