

KATHLEEN NIXON AWARD

Kathleen Nixon was a student at Royal Holloway College from 1925 to 1928. This award was founded by her father in 1955.

Conditions of the Award:

1. The Award is open to female students who are graduating from Royal Holloway, University of London this academic year or who have recently graduated from Royal Holloway.
2. The Award is intended to provide a contribution towards the cost of further professional or vocational training.
3. The applicant is expected to explore all other possibilities of financial help in addition to applying for this Award.
4. The Award shall normally be awarded for one year, but the holder of the Award may apply for its renewal.
5. The Travel Awards and College Prizes Allocation Panel will consider applications for the Award before making a recommendation to the Academic Awards Group.
6. Recipients of the Award are required to submit a brief report of the activities for which they have utilised the Award. This report will be published on the Royal Holloway Travel Awards and College Prizes webpage.