KINGSTON SHAKESPEARE SEMINAR
AT GARRICK’S TEMPLE
SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 3 2016
SHAKESPEARE AND THE ENLIGHTENMENT

Programme
10.00 Welcome: Richard Wilson (Kingston University)
10.15: Paul Kottman (New School, New York)
   ‘Herder, Hegel and Shakespeare’

11.00: Coffee

11.30: Patricia Gillies (Essex University)
   ‘Shakespeare and Hobbes’
12.15: John Gillies (Essex University)
   ‘The Conversational Turn in Shakespeare’

13.00: Lunch (own arrangements: nearby Bell Inn and Stables Restaurant recommended)

14.00: Edward Chaney (Southampton Solent University):
        ‘Thy pyramids built up with newer might’:
        Shakespeare and the Elizabethan Obelisks’
14.45: Kate Felus (Historic Landscapes):
        ‘Garrick’s Temple Garden’

15.30: Tea

16.30: Kiernan Ryan:
        ‘The Empathetic Imagination and the Dream of Equality:
         Shakespeare’s “Poetical Justice”’

19.30: Concert: Lovekyn Renaissance Consort

Places are limited to 50. Reserve at https://shakespeareandtheenlightenment.eventbrite.co.uk