Department of Media Arts

COURSE OPTIONS FOR VISITING STUDENTS

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

Media Arts is one of the largest, top-rated departments in the country, offering a unique mix of practical media production and media theory and analysis. Our staff are internationally recognised experts in the fields of European and World cinema and in British and American film and television. Our practice-based research benefits from close links with senior figures working in the media and creative industries. The Media Arts Department has been ranked joint sixth in the U.K for its research in the Research Assessment Exercise results which have just been released. 20% of our research was deemed to be world leading and 55% of international excellence. This result, for a department which submitted considerable amounts of practice as well as theoretical work, is outstanding and rewards our serious commitment to cutting edge research.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

The Department of Media Arts normally accepts students onto their courses provided that they have had some background in Media Arts. Students are reminded the Level 3 Courses are equivalent to Senior Year/Graduate Level work in US systems.

Any students interested in practice courses must contact the department directly.

Term 1 = Autumn Term

Term 2 = Spring Term
