You want to go on a field trip with your course but it costs £200. What do you do?

You go back to university at the start of the year- but your maintenance loan has not arrived in your bank account. What do you do?

You have budgeted £50 a week for food. You have reached Thursday and have £15 left. What do you do?

You need an outfit for a fancy dress night at the SU. What do you do?

You have received your reading list for the new academic year- you need 5 new textbooks. What do you do?

You want to go for a day out in London with your friends. A return train ticket for this Saturday costs £30! What do you do?

You're competing in a tennis tournament but your racquet just broke! What do you do?

You'd like a new pair of shoes for graduation but your budget is looking tight. What do you do?

Your bedroom in your student house is getting chilly and it's hard to study. You haven't budgeted for any extra heating. What do you do?

Your parents are coming to visit you at university and would like to go out for a nice meal. What do you do?