

Royal Holloway University of London

Royal Holloway, University of London, is a truly multicultural institution. With almost a third of our students joining us from outside the UK, and alumni in 165 countries around the world, we are proud to be one of the most international universities in the UK.

Located in Egham, Surrey, just 40 minutes by train from central London and a 20 minute drive to Heathrow airport, our state-of-the-art campus spans 135 acres and has previously been voted the most beautiful campus in the United Kingdom.

We have a large Middle Eastern community and presence at Royal Holloway, with a high number of students joining us from Turkey each year, as well as student-run events, and our very own on-campus sheesha cafe.

We have a very popular Middle Eastern community and presence at Royal Holloway, including our very own on-campus sheesha cafe, and a number of events throughout the year.

“For my BA, I enjoyed the blend of practical experience and theoretical knowledge. Having a good focused understanding of the production process whilst being able to dive into specific areas of interest. The course I did was very beneficial in enabling me to discover my passion. Meanwhile, joining societies allowed me to meet new people, share my passion with others, and find new areas of interest. All of which helped me get a better understanding and grow as an individual.”

Hadeel Mufti, BA Drama & Theatre Studies

Academic entry requirements

Undergraduate

Turkish High School Diploma will be considered with a minimum overall aggregate of at least 75% to 80% overall, and usually 80% in any specified subject(s). A-Levels and the International Baccalaureate will also be considered.

Postgraduate
