Royal Holloway Open Days (September-October)

Year 12
This summer is a great time for work experience, internships or volunteering – it looks great on the personal statement.

Help to prepare documents for the means-tested finance application

Start researching courses and universities
Encourage your son or daughter to think about their desired career, and what they might want to study. UCAS Exhibitions run from March to June across the country, allowing students to speak to representatives from hundreds of universities.

Year 13
Good time to start writing the personal statement

Suggest your son or daughter asks a teacher or advisor to look over their application and personal statement

January February March April May June July August September

UCAS application deadline (January)

UK students apply for student finance from now

Time to make firm and insurance university choices if all offers have been received

Check both are places your son or daughter would be happy to study!

International students pay their deposits

Online enrolment opens (August)

Start preparing for the big day by stocking up on those essentials!

January February March April May June July August September

Applicant Visit Days
These days are designed to be a day-in-the-life experience for applicants, with detailed information about the course, more about student life and accommodation on campus, and the chance to speak to current students.

Most offers are made by the end of March

Royal Holloway accommodation applications open

Exam time: good luck!

Use this summer to help your son or daughter get ready for university: could they work part-time? If they are interested in part-time work whilst they study, there are loads of opportunities at Royal Holloway. Students can work up to 20 hours per week, in over 1,200 part-time jobs on campus alone!

A-level results day and the start of Clearing

Term starts!
Royal Holloway 'Welcome Week' is full of social events, departmental inductions, and opportunities to meet new people, all geared towards our students settling into life on campus.
