

Geography PhD Research Forum and Poster Exhibition

Tuesday 22nd September

1pm - 4:30pm

Queens Building 170

Schedule

Presentation Session One - 1pm - 2:30pm

Weitao Wang - "Pyro-powers: atmospheric aesthetics and politics of Chinese fireworks"

Els Rogers - "The geomorphological record of the terrestrial retreat of the Spey Valley Ice Lobe"

Babette van Gerwen - "Awkward Encounters: Rethinking More-than-Human Relations through Citizen Science and Performance"

Jess Clayton-Rowley - "Preliminary Insights into Limnological Variability During the 8.2ka Event from Annually Resolved Lake Sequences in Eastern England"

Poster Session - 2:30pm - 3pm

Join us in the Queen's Building Foyer for posters and refreshments

Geography PhD Research Forum and Poster Exhibition

Tuesday 22nd September

1pm - 4:30pm

Queens Building 170

Presentation Session Two - 3pm - 4:30pm

Meghana Kuppia - "Crafting Pedagogical Museums: Tracing Biocultural Collections from British India at Kew Gardens and the South Kensington Museum in the Nineteenth Century"

Dylan Oliver - "Testing the ability of soil eDNA metabarcoding from different UK wet woodlands to capture invertebrate community structure, compared to traditional methods"

Baichuan Liu - "Geographies and Force: Altitude, Slope and Descent"

Richard Lowther - "Testing the impact of the Early Holocene Abrupt Climatic Events (ACEs) on Mesolithic societies In Northern Britain"

If you are unable to attend in person and would like to join online please email: Anna.lewis.2023@live.rhul.ac.uk for a Teams link.