1 Introduction to the Department

1.1 Welcome

A Message from the Course Director, Ivan Levene.

Welcome to the Department of Media Arts. We would like to extend a warm welcome to all our new students and to all students returning to us. To those new students, we hope that you will soon feel at home.

MASTFiR is an innovative new programme, taught over four week-long residential retreats spread over one year – two in Egham and at our recently refurbished campus in Central London. Between retreats the programme is run as distance-learning with a website, chat room and e-tutorials.

This makes it possible for those living outside the UK, and those with busy working lives like freelancers and those in the film and TV industries, to take time out to attend. Previous students include established actors, playwrights, theatre directors, comedy writers, editors, producers, commercial directors, advertising copywriters, novelists and many others.

MASTFiR covers writing for Feature Film and Television as well as new developments such as web drama, and provides a creative atmosphere conducive to concentrated learning and group interaction. A core course of the programme is Development Lab, where students present their work in progress to the group for criticism and feedback, and experiment with co-writing.

Students develop a range of ideas, then go on to write film and television outlines, and several drafts of either a feature film screenplay, a TV single drama, or a TV series or serial bible and sample episodes.

They also meet and work with industry and independent producers, directors, agents, writers and actors to provide a production context. We have recently had guests including major feature film directors and screenwriters, as well as people from the BBC, the Casarotto Ramsay agency and many others.

1.5 How to find us: the Departmental office

The department office is located in AG15 on the ground floor of the Arts Building at Egham and the Senior Faculty Administrator’s office is next door in Room AG14. It is normally open between 9am and 4pm. Letters may be left there for members of staff and this is where to deliver your assessment, unless arrangements have been made for the course director to take delivery personally in Bedford Square. Any student, who wishes to, may make an appointment to see the Media Arts Head of Department by going to the Media Arts Office or by telephoning the Office.

1.6 Staff research interests

https://pure.royalholloway.ac.uk/portal/en/organisations/department-of-media-arts(98b6ceda-133d-4f03-8df1-fb0423a663b6)/persons.html?filter=current

2 Communication

It is vitally important that you keep in touch with us and we keep in touch with you. Members of staff will often need to be able to contact you to inform you about changes to teaching arrangements, special preparations you may have to do for a class or meetings you might be required to attend. You will need to be able to contact members of the Department for example, if you are unable to attend a class, or wish to arrange a meeting with a tutor or your Personal Tutor.

Email to your College email address is routinely used and you should check regularly (at least daily) if any official communication has been sent to your email address. Do not ignore the email as it will be assumed that it will have been received by you within 48 hours, excluding Saturdays and Sundays.

You should also make a habit of checking the student pigeonholes in the Department.

2.1 Email

The College provides an email address for all students free of charge and stores the address in a College email directory (the Global Address List). Your account is easily accessed, both on and off campus, via the Student Portal (Campus Connect) or direct via Outlook.com http://outlook.com/ Email to this address will be used routinely for all communication with students. Email may be used for urgent communication and by course tutors to give or confirm instructions or information related to teaching so it is important that you build into your routine that you check your emails once a day. Email communications from staff and all the Faculty Administrators should be treated as important and read carefully. The College provides a number of PC Labs around Campus for student use, and you can also use your own laptop/smart phone etc., so the Department expects you to check your email regularly. It is also important that you regularly clear your College account of unwanted messages or your in-box may become full and unable to accept messages. Just deleting messages is not sufficient; you must clear the ‘Sent Items’ and ‘Deleted Items’ folders regularly. It is your responsibility to make sure your College email account is kept in working order. If you have any problems contact the IT Service Desk.

The Media Arts Department will only use the address in the College Global Address List and does not use private or commercial email addresses, such as Hotmail or Gmail. Students who prefer to use commercial email services are responsible for making sure that their College email is diverted/forwarded to the appropriate commercial address. Detailed instructions on how to forward mail can be accessed by visiting http://help.outlook.com/ and searching for forwarding (you may need to use IE browser to access this as the link does not work on some browsers). This process is very easy, but you do have to maintain your College account. When you delete a forwarded message from, say, Hotmail, it will not be deleted from the Royal Holloway account. Please ensure you log on to your College account regularly and conduct some account maintenance or your account may become full and therefore will not forward messages.

If you send an email to a member of staff in the Department during term time you should normally receive a reply within 3-4 working days of its receipt. Please remember that there are times when members of staff are away from College at conferences or undertaking research.

2.2 Post

All post addressed to students in Media Arts is delivered to the student pigeonholes (alphabetical by surname) in the Arts Building ground floor. These are outside the Admin Office which is room AG14. At the end of each term student pigeonholes are cleared of accumulated mail which is then destroyed. Important information from Registry is often sent by internal post and tutors sometimes return work to you via the pigeonholes so you are advised to check them regularly.

2.3 Telephone and postal address

Please ensure that your telephone number (mobile and landline) and postal address (term-time and forwarding) are kept up to date on the Student Portal (Campus Connect). There are occasions when the Department needs to contact you urgently by telephone or send you a letter by post.

The Department does not disclose students’ addresses and telephone numbers to anybody else (including relatives and fellow students) without the student’s specific permission to do so.

2.4 Notice boards

There are no official student notice boards in Egham or Bedford Square for Postgraduate Taught student. Information on classes etc. will be posted on Moodle and emailed out to you well in advance, but occasionally changes have to be made at short notice so please check your emails regularly.
It is your responsibility to check the times and venues of all class meetings and of any requirements (eg. essay deadlines) relating to your courses, so, if in doubt, please ask!

2.5 Personal Tutors

A personal advisor is assigned to every student and regular meetings are arranged by the advisors (at least once a term). These meetings will provide an opportunity for students to discuss any matters of concern, whether relating to their academic progress or to other aspects of their life and work in the department. Personal Advisors have a duty of confidentiality about issues raised by their advisees. Your Advisor will have regular office hours which are usually displayed on their office door. You should email them in the first instance and they will arrange a date and time they can see you.

2.6 Questionnaires

Questionnaires will be distributed to students at the end of each course. These provide valuable feedback to the staff of the department and the time you put into filling them out is much appreciated. Each year issues raised in the questionnaires are taken into account when planning the following year’s courses.

3 Teaching

3.1 Dates of terms

Term dates can be found on the College website here.

You are expected to be in the UK and engaging with your studies during term time. In the case of an emergency which requires you to leave the country and/or miss lectures/seminars/practicals etc., you are expected to keep your department informed and fill in a Notification of Absence Form (see 3.3 below). During the summer term, after the summer examination period, you are expected to attend all required academic activities organized by your department(s) and to be available should you be required to meet with College staff for any reason. Furthermore, as Master’s programmes run for one calendar year from September to September you are required to engage with your studies and be available to meet with staff after the end of the Summer Term until your programme end date in September. For Master’s programmes there is no summer vacation period.
3.2 Academic Timetable

Your individual timetable is available to see online via Campus Connect. You can download this to a personal calendar if you wish. You should check your timetable regularly as it links to the live Timetabling system, so will update automatically to reflect any changes. Timetable changes within two working days will be notified by email to your RHUL account. You will receive separate communications by email and on Campus Connect about exactly how to access and download your timetable.

3.3 Reading weeks

Not applicable to all Postgraduate Taught Programmes in Media Arts, unless advised by your course convenor.

3.4 Attending classes and engaging with your studies

The College has a responsibility to ensure that all students are attending regularly and progressing with their studies. While it is essential that you attend all the compulsory learning activities related to your programme of study, the College understands that emergencies may occur at any time throughout the year. In light of this, the Media Arts Department has set a minimum attendance level at 80%. You should be aware that you may also study courses that have different and specific course attendance requirements, particularly if you are taking courses in another department, so it is essential that you check all programme and course handbooks to ensure you are fully aware of the requirements.

Your regular attendance in class and consistent engagement with your studies are fundamental requirements of your learning experience with the College. As such, failure to attend and/or absence without permission can result in serious consequences and may lead to disciplinary action, including the termination of your registration (see 3.3.6 below). Your ‘classes’ are any learning or teaching activity deemed essential to your programme of study. The term is used to encompass a variety of different activities, including lectures, seminars, tutorials, workshops, field work, laboratory work, and meetings your Personal Tutor.

It is vital that you manage your time effectively, so that any paid employment, voluntary work, extracurricular activities or social commitments do not interfere with periods where you are required to attend classes. With regard to paid employment during the course of your programme of study with the College, the Postgraduate Taught Regulations stipulate that the amount of paid work undertaken by a student enrolled with the College on a full-time basis shall not exceed 20 hours per week during term time. No student may undertake paid work which may conflict with his/her responsibilities as a student of the College.

If you face difficulty in attending any classes or undertaking an assessment it is very important that you inform the department(s) in which you are studying as early as possible, citing the reasons for your non-attendance. The department will make a decision on whether or not to authorize your absence. If you are experiencing such difficulties on an ongoing basis, please contact your Personal Tutor or Year Tutor. In addition, an extensive range of additional support, guidance and advice is readily available from the College’s Welfare & Wellbeing services (Academic Services Directorate) (https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/students/help-support/help-and-support.aspx). The Students’ Union also operate an Advice and Support Centre, details on which can be found here http://www.su.rhul.ac.uk/advice/.

3.4.1 Your responsibilities in relation to attendance

Your responsibilities around attendance and engagement include:

- attending all classes necessary for the pursuit of your studies (including lectures, seminars, practicals and personal tutorials);
- undertaking all summative and formative assessment requirements for your courses;
- attending all meetings and other activities as required by the department(s) in which you are studying;
- where you experience any form of difficulty in attending classes, for whatever reason, contacting the department(s) in which you are studying to notify them of your circumstances at the earliest possibility.

You are expected to fully engage in your classes, undertaking any reading, research or further preparation identified between these sessions alongside punctual attendance. It is essential that you make suitable arrangements for travel to your classes and plan to arrive in good time, as teaching starts on the hour and finishes at ten minutes before the hour. You will be marked absent if you turn up late without good reason.

3.4.2 Departments’ responsibilities for monitoring attendance

The Media Arts Department will monitor your attendance at Lectures/Workshops/Seminars. It is your responsibility to complete any attendance register that is circulated and to make sure that your attendance has been noted. The activities at which your attendance is monitored may vary depending upon the discipline in which you are studying or the department in which you are taking courses in the case of electives, for example.

It is important that you attend all the learning activities related to your programme of study. Whilst attendance is compulsory at all learning activities, it is recognised that emergencies may occur at any time throughout the year and therefore as indicated above a minimum attendance requirement has been set.

You will be contacted in the event that:

i. you fail to attend for two weeks without providing notification of your absence;
ii. you display a pattern of absence that the department feel is affecting or is likely to affect your work you display a pattern of absence that the department feel is a cause for concern over your wellbeing or may point to a disability which you may not have disclosed.

3.4.3 College’s responsibilities for monitoring attendance

The College has a number of important obligations in relation to monitoring your attendance and engagement, including legal responsibilities under the Equality Act (2010). As a result, the College may adjust the attendance requirement for your programme but will only do this when such adjustment does not compromise competence standards or your ability to reach the learning outcomes of your programme. Any need to adjust attendance requirements will be treated case by case and discussed by the department with the Disability and Dyslexia Services (DDS) and Academic Quality & Policy Office (AQPO).

The College also has obligations places on it by UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) – (see 3.3.7 below).

3.4.4 Missing classes

If you are unable to attend College for whatever reason you must advise the department in which you taking the course(s) in question and complete the relevant Notification of Absence Form, which is available online.
https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/attendance/notificationofabsence.aspx
This must be submitted to the relevant department(s) together with the relevant supporting documentation either before your absence or within five working days of the end of the period of absence.

You should ensure:

a. that you advise the departments by phone 01784 414629 or email (angela.godden@royalholloway.ac.uk)
b. that you complete the Notification of Absence Form, copies of which are also available from the Health Centre.
c. that you submit the paperwork to your department(s) either before your absence or within FIVE working days of the end of the period of absence. Failure to do so may result in the absence being counted as unacceptable and counting against the minimum attendance level. This documentation should be submitted by email to angela.godden@royalholloway.ac.uk that you meet any departmental requirements concerning notification of absence or request for leave of absence as you may be required to meet formally with an academic tutor. Requests should be made in writing to the Programme Convenor.

This table shows the documentation that is required should you be absent for any reason.
Table: Reason for absence and Documentation required

</tbody>
</table>

Note:

- If you are absent for a prolonged period it is essential that you keep in touch with the Department (e.g. through regular emails with your Personal Tutor).
- The Department will monitor the frequency of self-certified absences and the Head of Department may request a doctor’s medical certificate from you in the event of multiple and/or sustained instances of self-certified illness.
- The departments in which you are studying are responsible for monitoring your attendance and engagement, and deciding whether a period of absence is deemed acceptable or unacceptable (for further information please refer to the online guidance http://www.rhul.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/attendance/notificationofabsence.aspx for details of what constitutes ‘acceptable’ and ‘unacceptable’ circumstances relating to absence). If deemed unacceptable the absence will be recorded as such and will count against your minimum attendance level.

3.4.5 Missing an examination

In the event that you are unable to attend an exam (e.g. through reasons of sudden illness), it is essential that you notify Student Administration at the very earliest possibility. Wherever possible, please try to ensure you contact them via e-mail at student-administration@rhul.ac.uk before the scheduled start of the exam with your name, student ID and confirmation of the exam that you are unable to attend. Please include a brief explanation within the email outlining the reasons for the non-attendance.

This notification will then be forwarded by Student Administration to your department so that they are aware of your non-attendance.

Please note, this notification is not a substitute for formally notifying your department of Extenuating Circumstances. It is essential that you inform your department and Chair of the Sub-board of Examiners by completing the Extenuating Circumstances form. For further information, please refer to the website https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/examinations/extenuatingcirc.
In the event that you do not complete the Extenuating Circumstances form, your department will be unable to consider the reasons for your non-attendance at your departmental Sub-Board of Examiners.

3.4.6 Consequences of failing to attend

As indicated in 3.3.2 above the Department may contact you if there are concerns about your attendance.

Should it become apparent that there are no acceptable reasons for your non-attendance and/or general lack of engagement with your studies, the Department may issue you with a formal warning which can escalate to the termination of your registration at the College. You are strongly advised to read the guidance on the formal warning process and the consequences of receiving such a warning on and in the relevant regulations.

In situations where you are experiencing documented severe difficulties the Department and College will make every effort to support you and counsel you as to the best course of action. However, there may be cases where, although non-attendance is explained by an acceptable reason, your level of attendance falls to a level which compromises educational standards and/or your ability to reach the learning outcomes of the course. In such cases it will be necessary to implement disciplinary procedures as detailed above.

3.4.7 Withdrawal of visa

If you are sponsored by Royal Holloway on a Tier-4 (General) Visa, should your registration at the College be terminated for non-attendance or a general lack of engagement with your studies, you will be reported to the UKVI and your Tier 4 visa will be withdrawn. Alternatively, in line with the College’s legal obligations to UKVI, if you fail to meet the requirement of your Tier 4 visa to attend classes and complete assessments, the College may terminate your student registration without following the disciplinary procedures outlined in the Academic Regulations and the decision is not open to appeal.

Please see the College Postgraduate Taught Regulations.

4 Degree Structure

Full details about your programme of study, including, amongst others, the aims, learning outcomes to be achieved on completion, courses which make up the programme and any programme-specific regulations are set out in the programme specification available through Course Finder or the Programme Specification Repository.

5 Degree Structure

Full details about your programme of study, including, amongst others, the aims, learning outcomes to be achieved on completion, courses which make up the programme and any programme-specific regulations are set out in the programme specification available through Course Finder or the Programme Specification Repository.

5.1 Course Registrations

While you have the option of changing course unit registrations within the first two/three weeks after the start of teaching (excluding Welcome Week) subject to agreement from the department, once you have submitted assessment for the course, you may not replace it with another either in that term or in a subsequent term (e.g. Spring term). Any courses that you wish to take on an extracurricular basis (that is, as extra and not counting towards your degree) must be identified at the start of the academic year or before any assessment has been completed for the course.

6 Facilities

6.1 The Library

The Library is housed in the Emily Wilding Davison Building.

Details, including Library Search, dedicated subject guides and opening times can be found online from the library home page: http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/library/home.aspx

The Ground Floor of the Library contains a High Use Collection bringing together much of the course reading into one area. The rest of the library collections are on the upper floors. There are plenty of study areas and bookable rooms to carry out group work as well as many areas to work on your own. The Library contains a large number of PCs and has laptops to borrow to use in other study areas.

If you cannot find the specific items that you require in the library, it is possible order an Inter-Library Loan or to gain access to the online resources of Senate House Library as well as access to use the library’s physical collections or other university libraries. You can obtain further information on this here: https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/library/usingourlibraries/otherlibraries/using-other-libraries.aspx . The Information Consultant for Media Arts is Rachel Sleeman, who can be contacted at rachel.sleeman@royalholloway.ac.uk

The Library provides a range of training sessions designed to enhance your existing library and research skills. These are available in both class-based and self-study formats. For information on available sessions and to book a place, go to:

http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/library/helpandsupport/findinginformation.aspx
6.2 Photocopying, printing and computing

6.2.1 Photocopying

The departmental photocopier is in constant use by office staff and lecturers. For this reason, we are unable to allow postgraduate students to use it. You can use copier-printers (MFDs) located in the Library, the Computer Centre and many PC labs, which will allow you to make copies in either black and white or colour. Further information is available online: https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/it/printing/home.aspx

If you require copying to be done for a seminar presentation, you need to give these materials to your tutor to copy on your behalf. Please make sure that you plan ahead and give the materials to your tutor in plenty of time.

6.2.2 Printing

Many of the PC labs are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Alternatively, there are computers available for your use in the Library and Computer Centre.

Departmental staff are unable, in any circumstances, to print anything out on your behalf. Copier-printers (MFDs) are located across the campus in the PC labs, the Library, and Computer Centre. Further information on printing is available online: http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/it/printing/home.aspx

6.2.3 Computing

The Computer Centre provides a range of IT training sessions designed to enhance your current IT skills. These are available in both class-based and self-study formats, and successful completion of the course is rewarded by a College IT Skills certificate. To participate in these sessions, go to: http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/it/training/home.aspx

7 Coursework Essays and Dissertation

7.1 Coursework Essay

You will be given an Assessment Paper for all assessed work in Media Arts, specifying the written work which is expected of you in each of the courses you are taking, and the deadline for submission of work. You should consult your course tutor if there is any aspect of the assessment which is unclear to you.

In written work of any kind, one of the criteria for assessment is clarity of expression and appropriate written style. If work is marred by poor spelling, punctuation, unclear expression, or does not conform to the Department's rules for presentation, it will be penalised. This penalty can be up to 20% of the mark initially awarded, and you are strongly urged to check your work for correct grammar, spelling and style.

Essays, dissertations, etc., should be typed and double-spaced, with margins of at least one inch on all sides. Each new paragraph should be indented from the margin. Students should always hand in two copies of each assessment and should also retain a copy in electronic form in case there are problems with the hard copies.

Titles of films, books, and television programmes or series should be italicised; articles and individual TV episodes should be placed in single quotation marks (‘…’), double quotation marks (“…”) being reserved for quotes within quotes. References to critical texts, etc., are made by giving the author’s surname, followed by the year of publication, in parentheses following the reference, e.g. (McBride 1992), see below; this refers the reader to an entry in your bibliography. Should there be more than one text written by the same author in the same year in your bibliography, they should be differentiated as: Smith 1985a, 1985b, etc. If your reference includes a direct quotation, you should add a page reference, e.g. (Ray 1985: 215), see below.

Quotations of less than three lines should be integrated into the text; extended quotations (to be used sparingly) should be single-spaced blocks; indented from the rest of the text (see below). Always remember to proofread your work carefully before submitting it.

Beware of plagiarism, which will mean automatic disqualification from the assessment or examination. Academic plagiarism is defined as knowingly passing off the work of others as your own, whether by direct quotation or paraphrase. Material used in one essay should not be duplicated in another so be careful when choosing your essay topics that you will not be in danger of wanting to use the same material in two or more essays; any duplication will be given a mark of zero.

Your essay or dissertation must be within the maximum and minimum word-length specified in the assessment paper. The length of essays includes all quotations, footnotes, headings etc, but not your bibliography.

EXAMPLE: From Steve Neale ‘Masculinity as spectacle’

... Raymond Bellour’s article on North by Northwest (Bellour 1975) is the only example that springs readily to mind. Bellour’s article follows in some detail the Oedipal trajectory of Hitchcock’s film, tracing the movement of its protagonist, Roger Thornhill (Cary Grant) from a position of infantile dependence on the mother to a position of ‘adult’, ‘male’ and heterosexual masculinity, sealed by his marriage to Eve Kendall (Eva Marie Saint) and by his acceptance of the role and authority of the father. However, the article is concerned as much with the general workings of a classical Hollywood film as it is with the specifics of a set of images of masculinity.

The image is a source both of narcissistic processes and drives, and, inasmuch as it is other, of object-orientated process and drives:

Mulvey discusses the male star as an object of the look but denies him the function of an erotic object. Because Mulvey conceives the look to be essentially active in its aims, identification with the male protagonist is only considered from a point of view which associates it with a sense of omnipotence, of assuming control of the narrative. She makes no differentiation between identification and object choice in which sexual aims may be directed toward the male figure from the point of view of an economy of masochism (Rodowick 1982: 8)

Given Rodowick’s argument, it is not surprising either that ‘male’ genres and films constantly involve sado-masochistic themes, scenes, and phantasies or that male heroes can at times be marked as the object of an erotic gaze. These are both points I wish to discuss below. However, it is worth mentioning here that they have also been discussed in Paul Willemen’s article ‘Anthony Mann: looking at the male’. Willemen argues that spectacle and drama in Mann’s films tend both to be structured around the look at the male figure: ‘The viewer’s experience is predicated on the pleasure of seeing the male “exist” (that is walk, move, ride, fight) in or through cityscapes, landscapes or, more abstractly, history. And on the unquiet pleasure of seeing the male mutilated (often graphically in Mann) and restored through violent brutality’ (Willemen 1981: 16)

7.2 The dissertation supervisor

Your department will assign you a dissertation supervisor who will oversee your work. In most cases students are happy with the supervisory relationship. However, there are occasions where for some reason the supervisory relationship does not work and breaks down. If this happens, you should speak as soon as possible with the Programme Director or your Personal Tutor to see whether the problem can be resolved informally, e.g. through mediation, changing supervisor. You should not wait until after you have received your final degree results to raise the matter as it is very difficult for the College to resolve such matters or take remedial action at that point

7.3 Footnotes

You may use either footnotes (at the bottom of the page) or endnotes (at the end of the essay/chapter/entire dissertation, before the bibliography and appendices, if any). For lengthier work, footnotes are usually easier for the reader to follow. Since straightforward references are contained within the main body of the paper, notes should be reserved for longer commentary on secondary materials or other observations that you feel are peripheral or for other reasons best omitted from the paper itself.

7.4 Bibliography

Do not cite household reference works such as dictionaries, encyclopaedias, etc. The bibliography should be single-spaced and conform to the following style.
For books provide the author, title, place of publication, publisher, and year of publication. Be sure to include names of translators, editors of editions, etc., as applicable (words such as Ltd, Inc, Publishers, may be omitted; University Press may be shortened to UP):

For articles, provide the author, title of article, name of journal, volume number and year of the journal, and page references:

7.5 Referencing style

Please use the Harvard system. For books provide the author, date, title, place of publication, publisher. Be sure to include names of translators, editors of editions, etc., as applicable (words such as Ltd, Inc, Publishers, may be omitted; University Press may be shortened to UP):

For articles, provide the author, date, title of article, name of journal, volume number and number of the journal, and page references, as above. :

When referencing a book, then provide author, date, title, place of publication and publisher, thus:

When referencing a chapter from an anthology, then provide author, date, editors of anthology, title of anthology, place of publication and publisher. You may wish to add page numbers as well:

If you use information from the Internet, cite the URL of the page, and give the date when you accessed the page. You should also state briefly what the website is:

If you have done interviews, reference them with the name of the interviewee. The place where you did the interview and the date of the interview.
Interview with Tony Garnett World Productions London. 15th July 2005.

If the interviews are confidential and you cannot reference them in this form, supply full details of them in an envelope with your assessed work. This will be handed to the external examiner for verification.

1)- MA 5801/ MA 5802.

DISTINCTION – Work of an Outstanding Quality.
80 -100%
Outstanding work which would be suitable to be developed for film or television production. Exhibiting a writer’s voice of striking originality at the level of both form and content. Deploys formal elements such as rhythm, tone, structure, viewpoint, characterisation, dialogue, with very considerable mastery, control and complexity. Contains insights of originality, or presents familiar insights in an arresting, fresh manner. Takes bold, innovative risks in form and/or content and succeeds. Engages its reader/view/listener at a complex, demanding and sophisticated level.

DISTINCTION
Excellent work, suitable to be developed further for film and television production. Meets all the criteria for the lower grades, but exhibits substantial levels of flair, originality and sophistication. The writer's voice is strongly present, in form and content. Takes bold risks, and succeeds to a significant degree. Form and content demonstrate a substantial engagement with the reader/potential film/TV audience.

MERIT

Good work. Meets all the criteria for the lower grades, but exhibits a greater level of control and consistency. Content is of greater substance and complexity, demonstrating a noticeable level of originality and insight. The writer's voice is clearly discernible, though not consistent or developed. Takes some risks with form/content, which are not wholly successful, or are limited in scope. Would need revisions to be suitable for film or television production.

PASS

Competent work. Where appropriate, accepted conventions of format and layout are correctly followed. Has a clearly discernible story and/or theme, which is articulated with some fluency and consistency. The forms of the genre/medium are understood and deployed with the beginnings of flair, but may contain hesitancy, uncertainty or inconsistency in deployment. May not be particularly original, perhaps tending towards the routine or derivative. Would need substantial revisions to be suitable for film or television production.

FAIL

*40- 49%
Reveals an inadequate understanding of the forms of the genre/medium and proves less than competent in deploying them. Story and/or theme and character are poorly developed, muddled or incoherent. Reveals an unsatisfactory command of the language, expressing ideas with clumsiness or lack of clarity, and evincing poor grasp of the rules of grammar, spelling and punctuation. Would not in its current state be suitable for film or television production.

*0- 39%
Ranges from serious plagiarism to work seriously short in weight or work which displays the faults of the preceding category in still graver form. Has no clear potential for film or television production.

2) - MA 5803

DISTINCTION- Work of an Outstanding Quality

*80 -100%
Shows a full, precise grasp of the subject, addresses it directly and keeps it in focus throughout; provides a sophisticated account of the material, revealing strong evidence of original thought and research; demonstrates an ability to construct an exceptionally lucid and cogent argument, anchored in concisely adduced textual evidence including (where appropriate) apt and exact quotation.
DISTINCTION
Makes coherent and convincing arguments. Brings a broad range of secondary reading (critical, theoretical, film/television industry commentary) to bear on argument; reveals an advanced command of the language by expressing ideas in clear, fluent prose and by using technical terms properly.

60 – 69%
Shows a sound understanding of the subject and tackles it effectively; provides a sophisticated account of the material, demonstrates superior powers of analysis and interpretation, and reveals strong signs of independent thought; exhibits an ability to construct a clear argument backed up by relevant textual evidence; brings secondary reading (critical, theoretical, film/television industry commentary) to bear on the argument; reveals a sure command of the language by expressing ideas in lucid prose and by using technical terms properly.

50 – 59%
Shows an adequate understanding of the subject and shows reasonable competence in addressing it, but prone to stray from the point or lose focus; delivers an acceptable account of the material which demonstrates effective powers of analysis and interpretation, but does not do justice to the complexity of the issues; constructs arguments that fall short of full clarity and coherence and are not sufficiently supported by textual evidence; affords little evidence of secondary reading being brought to bear on the subject; reveals a fair but limited command of the language by expressing ideas with inconsistent lucidity and occasional clumsiness, by using technical terms imprecisely or not at all.

Reveals an inadequate understanding of the subject and proves less than competent in addressing it and keeping it in focus; delivers a rudimentary or incomplete account of the material, which betrays poorly developed powers of analysis and interpretation; constructs arguments which tend to be muddled and incoherent, and which are rarely substantiated by textual evidence; affords almost no evidence of secondary reading being brought to bear on the subject; reveals an unsatisfactory command of the language by expressing ideas with habitual clumsiness and lack of clarity, by using technical terms incorrectly or not at all.

Ranges from serious plagiarism to work seriously short in weight or work which displays the faults of the preceding category in a still graver form. The subject is poorly understood and not properly addressed; knowledge of the subject is plainly deficient and evidence of due preparation for the assignment slight; powers of analysis and interpretation are elementary and unreliable; arguments are badly muddled or consistently incoherent and not backed up... by textual reference; secondary reading is sketchy or undigested and is not used to illuminate the subject; reveals a substandard command of the language by expressing ideas ineptly or obscurely, by displaying a general ignorance of critical and technical terminology.

8 Assessment Information

8.1 Illness or other extenuating circumstances

Students are advised to carefully read the Instructions to candidates as well as the Extenuating circumstances – Guidance for students.

Extenuating circumstances are defined as unforeseen circumstances which are outside a student’s control and which may temporarily prevent a student from undertaking an assessment or have a marked/significant detrimental/adverse impact on their ability to undertake assessment by coursework or examination to the standard normally expected. This means that such circumstances rarely occur. They are outside your control as they are:

- Unforeseeable - you would not have prior knowledge of the event (e.g. you cannot foresee that you will be involved in a car accident);
- Unpreventable – you could not reasonably do anything in your power to prevent such an event (e.g. you cannot reasonably prevent a burst appendix.)

It is these short-term (temporary) circumstances that the College normally regards as extenuating circumstances.

Inability to submit coursework

If you are unable to submit coursework through unexpected illness or other acceptable cause (i.e. events which are unpreventable and unforeseeable) it is assumed that you will request an extension to the submission deadline from your department. In order for an extension to be granted you will need to provide the department with adequate documentation in accordance with the guidance in the Extenuating Circumstances – Guidance for students. The decision on whether to grant an extension rests with your department.

Absence from an examination

The Sub-Board of Examiners may take the following into account when considering your results: if you miss an examination through unexpected illness, or other acceptable cause (events which are unpreventable and unforeseeable), if you commence an examination and have to leave due to acute illness or if you believe your performance on the day was seriously compromised by an unexpected and acute illness that you could not reasonably have been expected to have managed otherwise. You will, however, need to submit an Extenuating Circumstances form and have adequate supporting documentation in accordance with Extenuating Circumstances – Guidance for students. You should also read the section Illness & absences from an examination and departmental assessments and extenuating circumstances in the Instructions to Candidates issued by Student http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/examinations/examinations/home.aspx for full details on how to inform your department about extenuating circumstances relating to missed examinations as well as the deadline for submission of such information.
Administration

Ongoing circumstances

If you have ongoing circumstances that you believe are adversely affecting your performance during the year, these should be raised with your department and with the College’s Welfare & Wellbeing services (Academic Services Directorate) as soon as possible so that strategies to help you manage the situation can be considered e.g. you have an illness that does not constitute a disability, a family member is ill and needs your support or you have suffered an adverse life event.

It may that the circumstances are severely impacting on your ability to study by causing you to repeatedly miss scheduled teaching and/or impacting on your ability to complete assessments at the designated time. If this is the case and there is not a reasonable method available to enable you to manage the situation, you may need to consider, in consultation with your department and Welfare & Wellbeing services (Academic Services Directorate), whether it would not be in your best interests to interrupt until the issues have been resolved and you are able to fully commit to and benefit from your academic studies.

Ongoing adverse circumstances do not normally constitute extenuating circumstances as they are not unforeseen and in some cases may be preventable. As such, it is unlikely that the Sub-board will be able to take action to mitigate such circumstances. For further information, please read the Extenuating circumstances – Guidance for students.

Support and exam access arrangements for disabled students and those in need of support

Some students at the College may have a physical or mental impairment, chronic medical condition or a Specific Learning Difficulty (SpLD) which would count as a disability as defined by the Equality Act (2010) that is, “a physical or mental impairment which has a long-term and substantial effect on your ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities”. It is for such conditions and SpLDS that Disability and Dyslexia Services can put in place support and exam access arrangements. Please note that a “long-term” impairment is one that has lasted or is likely to last for 12 months or more.

If you have a disability or SpLD you must register with the Disability and Dyslexia Services Office before support and exam access arrangements (‘reasonable adjustments’) can be put in place. There is a process to apply for special arrangements for your examinations. Disability and Dyslexia Services can discuss this process with you when you register with them. Please see the section Students in need of support (including disabled students) for further guidance about registering with the Disability and Dyslexia Services Office.

Please note that if reasonable adjustments, including exam access arrangements, have been put in place for you during the academic year, the Sub-board will not normally make further allowance in relation to your disability or SpLD.

8.2 Submission of written work

Assessments must be handed in on or before the given deadline. Deadlines and instructions for handing in your work are clearly given on each assessment paper. Please do not under any circumstances leave work to be picked up at the Bedford Square reception desk or post it to Bedford Square. All mail should be sent to Egham or handed in personally.

8.3 Extensions to deadlines

Extensions can only be granted by completing an extension application form (available on the Media Arts Website under information for students https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/mediaarts/informationforcurrentstudents/home.aspx), which has to be supported by the Course Director. Once you have completed the form you should send it to angela.godden@rhul.ac.uk and she will forward to the Head of Department for him to consider, this will then lodged in the Media Arts office. This procedure ensures that all students are given the same opportunities. Late submissions must be accompanied by (a) a signed extension form, and (b) Doctor's certificate or other accepted evidence. Examples of circumstances which may be accepted if you apply for an extension include: serious prolonged illness or that of a member of your immediate family; death of a family member or a close friend; your severe personal or psychological problems. Examples of circumstances which WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED if you apply for an extension include: personal computer/printing problems; paid employment; job interview; misunderstanding of regulations; transport problems; holidays.

8.4 Penalties for late submission of work

Work submitted after the published deadline will be penalised in line with Section 13 (5) of the College's Postgraduate Taught Regulations.

Please ensure that you are aware of the deadlines set by your department(s) and also the requirements to meet this deadline, e.g. whether you need to submit electronic and/ or paper copies for your submission to be deemed complete (see 7.2 above).

Section 13 (5)

‘In the absence of acceptable extenuating cause, late submission of work will be penalised as follows:

- for work submitted up to 24 hours late, the mark will be reduced by ten percentage marks;*
- for work submitted more than 24 hours late, the mark will be zero.’

*eg. an awarded mark of 65% would be reduced to 55% and a mark of 42% would be reduced to 32%.
If you have had extenuating circumstances which have affected your ability to submit work by the deadline these should be submitted in writing, accompanied by any relevant documentary evidence, to your department(s). As with all extenuating circumstances it is the discretion of the examiners whether to accept these as a reason for having not submitted work on time. Please see the section for details on submitting requests for extenuating circumstances to be considered.

8.5 Anonymous marking and cover sheets

Do not put your name on any of your work you should only use your candidate number (this is not your student number) which you can get from Campus Connect https://campus-connect.rhul.ac.uk/cp/home/displaylogin

8.6 Penalties for over-length work

Work which is longer than the stipulated length in the assessment brief will be penalised in line with Section 13 (6) of the College’s Postgraduate Taught Regulations.

Section 13 (6)

Any work (written, oral presentation, film, performance) which exceeds the upper limit set will be penalised as follows

(a) for work which exceeds the upper limit by up to and including 10%, the mark will be reduced by ten percent of the mark initially awarded;

(b) for work which exceeds the upper limit by more than 10% and up to and including 20% , the mark will be reduced by twenty percent of the mark initially awarded;

(c) for work which exceeds the upper limit by more than 20%, the mark will be reduced by thirty percent of the mark initially awarded.

The upper limit may be a word limit in the case of written work or a time limit in the case of assessments such as oral work, presentations or films.

In addition to the text, the word count should include quotations and footnotes. Please note that the following are excluded from the word count: candidate number, title, course title, preliminary pages, bibliography and appendices.

8.7 Return of written coursework

The following College policy applies to the return of coursework:

Assessed work (other than formal examinations) should be returned within 4 weeks of the submission deadline, except in cases where it is not appropriate to do so for academic reasons. The deadline for the return of marked work should be made clear to students when they receive their assignments. In the event that the intended deadline cannot be met, the revised deadline must be communicated to students as soon as possible.

8.8 Assessment offences

The College has regulations governing assessment offences which can be found on the following webpage:

http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/regulations/home.aspx

Assessment offences include, but are not limited to plagiarism (see 7.9 below), duplication of work, that is, submitting work for assessment which has already been submitted for assessment in the same or another course, falsification, collusion, for example, group working would constitute collusion where the discipline or the method of assessment emphasises independent study and collective ideas are presented as uniquely those of the individual submitting the work, failure to comply with the rules governing assessment (including those set out in the ‘Instructions to candidates’. The Regulations set out some of the types of assessment offences in more detail, the procedures for investigation into allegations of such offences and the penalties. Students are strongly encouraged to read these Regulations and to speak with their Personal Tutors or other members of staff in their department should they have any queries about what constitutes an assessment offence. The College treats assessment offences very seriously and misunderstanding about what constitutes an assessment offence will not be accepted as an excuse. Similarly extenuating circumstances cannot excuse an assessment offence.

8.9 Plagiarism

Definition of plagiarism

‘Plagiarism’ means the presentation of another person’s work in any quantity without adequately identifying it and citing its source in a way which is consistent with good scholarly practice in the discipline and commensurate with the level of professional conduct expected from the student. The source which is plagiarised may take any form (including words, graphs and images, musical texts, data, source code, ideas or judgements) and may exist in any published or unpublished medium, including the internet.

Plagiarism may occur in any piece of work presented by a student, including examination scripts, although standards for citation of sources may vary dependent on the method of assessment. Identifying plagiarism is a matter of expert academic judgement, based on a comparison across the student’s work and on knowledge of sources, practices and expectations for professional conduct in the discipline. Therefore it is possible to determine that an offence has occurred from an assessment of the student’s work alone, without reference to further evidence.

8.10 Marking of illegible scripts

It is College policy not to mark scripts which are illegible. If you anticipate that you may have difficulty in handwriting scripts which would lead to your scripts being illegible you should contact the Disability and Dyslexia Services. Please note the deadline for making an application for Examination Access Arrangements is in January each year. Therefore it is in your interest to contact DDS as soon as you are able in the Autumn Term in order that you have time to get any necessary evidence required for the application.

8.11 Progression and award requirements

The Regulations governing progression and award requirements are set out in your Programme Specification (http://www.rhul.ac.uk/coursecatalogue/home.aspx) and also more generally in the Postgraduate Taught Regulations.

For details on the requirements governing the level of award please see the section on the Consideration and Classification of Candidates for the Award in the Postgraduate Taught Regulations.

8.12 Examination/assessment results

Please see the Examinations & Assessments website for details of how you will be issued with your results.

The Examinations & Assessments website is the place where you can access the Instructions to Candidates and details of the examinations appeals procedures.

9 Student Support

9.1 Non-academic related enquiries & support

The Student Services Centre is located in the Emily Wilding Davison Building and provides a single point of contact for all non-academic related queries including accommodation, fees and funding, enrolment and graduation. For further details please visit http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ssc.

9.2 Students in need of support (including disabled students)

Your first point of reference for advice within the Department is your Personal Adviser or Jackie Marty, Department Manager. Inevitably, problems will sometimes arise that Jackie is not qualified to deal with. The College offers a high level of student welfare support which, includes a highly regarded Counselling Service, dedicated educational and disability support, as well as a wealth of student wellbeing, financial, career and other advice. There is also an NHS GP practice (the Health Centre) on campus located in Founder’s East. Further details of each service can be found on the College web on the Student Welfare page: https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/students/help-support/help-and-support.aspx

If you have a disability or specific learning difficulty, it is important that you bring it to our attention as soon as possible. The Departmental Disability and Dyslexia Service (DDS) representative is Dr J P Kelly. You must also contact the DDS (Founders West 143; tel: +44 (0)1784 276473; email: disability-dyslexia@royalholloway.ac.uk) who advise on appropriate sources of help. Further information is available on the College web on the Support, health and welfare page https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/students/help-support/disabilities-and-dyslexia/home.aspx

9.3 Academic Skills Support

The Centre for the Development of Academic Skills (CeDAS) offers a variety of courses, workshops, 1:1 tutorials, online resources that aim to ensure all students at Royal Holloway reach their full academic potential in a range of areas, including academic writing, oral communication skills and maths and statistics.

Whatever your needs, CeDAS is there to ensure that you can perform to the best of your ability, whether it be through a workshop that introduces you to a crucial academic skill, a session within your department that focuses on writing in the discipline, a course that develops your confidence and competence in academic English language, or a 1:1 tutorial with a specialist to help you master a maths technique or sharpen your essay skills.

The Centre also oversees the Royal Holloway Proofreading Scheme, which enables students to pay for an approved third-party proofreader to identify surface error in final drafts. Please note that Royal Holloway does not permit the use of paid third-party proofreaders who are not part of this scheme.

The CeDAS Office can be found on the ground floor of the International Building, room IN002, and you can follow them on Twitter: @cedasrhul. Further details can be found on the CeDAS webpages: www.royalholloway.ac.uk/cedas.

9.4 Student-Staff Committee

There is a student-staff committee on which taught students are represented. For constitution see committee’s handbook under Compliance/Governance http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/iquad/collegepolicies/home.aspx

The Committee meets three times each year and plays an important role in the Department as a forum for airing student views.

The Programme Director will ask for people to sit on this committee on behalf of MA Producing students at the beginning of the academic year. You can use the Committee to raise any issues which concern students.

9.5 Students’ Union

The Students’ Union offers a wide range of services and support, from entertainment and clubs/societies to advice on housing and academic issues. The Advice and Support Centre, situated on the first floor of the Students’ Union, runs a confidential service that is independent from the College. Open 9.30am - 5pm, Monday – Friday, it operates an open door policy exclusively for students during term time. However, during vacation periods students should call to book an appointment. Full details can be found at www.su.rhul.ac.uk/support.

9.7 Non-academic policies

Please see the Regulations and Procedures webpage which includes information on non-academic policies, regulations, and codes of practice as well as the Student Charter.
http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/aboutus/governancematters/studentcharter.aspx

9.8 Complaints and academic appeals procedure

If you have a complaint relating to any aspect of the Department or its staff or to any academic or College matter, you should first discuss it informally with your Personal Tutor or with another member of staff in the Department. We would hope that the majority of issues of this kind can be resolved by informal discussion. There are, however, procedures that can be invoked in serious cases. These are set out in the College Complaints Procedures for students. You should raise your complaint as soon as possible.

If the complaint concerns an academic decision, there is an academic appeals process. Please note that an academic appeal can only be submitted once you have received your results via the College portal. Details of the appeals procedures and permitted grounds for appeal can be found on the following webpage.

10 Health and Safety Information

10.1 Code of practice on harassment for students

This can be found on the student home pages under the Your Responsibilities as a Student section of the webpage.

10.2 Lone working policy and procedures

The College has a ‘Lone Working Policy and Procedure’ that can be found at http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/iquad/services/healthandsafety/policiesandprocedures/loneworking.aspx

Lone working is defined as working during either normal working hours at an isolated location within the normal workplace or when working outside of normal hours The Department and the type of work conducted by students is classified as a low risk activity and as such the following advice is relevant.

Any health and safety concerns should be brought to the attention of the Departmental Health and Safety Coordinator or the College Health and Safety Office.

It is likely that most activities will take place on College premises. However, the principles contained in the above section will apply to students undertaking duties off campus.

11.2 College codes of practice

We are, incidentally, an Apple Approved Training Centre for Education (AATCe). In addition to the training that we run during your practice classes, we run supplementary courses to prepare you for Apple Pro Apps exams, which we advertise on a regular basis. The actual training is provided for free to Media Arts students, but we do have to make a charge in advance to recover the cost of the examination fee and supplying the course manual. This training offers the means of achieving an industry-recognized standard of skill in operating such applications as Final Cut Pro, Soundtrack Pro, etc.

Headphones policy

All students are expected to supply and use their own headphones for location recording and use in our media labs. Your headphones should be of an appropriate type, normally:

- Closed-back type with sealed ear cups to offer effective insulation from outside noise (earplug type phones are unacceptable)
- Durable and comfortable construction to allow extended usage time
- Cable connection with straight lead of about 3 meters length
- Must have an adapter to fit both 3.5 mm and 6.3 mm stereo jack sockets
- 20 Hz – 20,000 Hz frequency response
- No artificial tonal coloration or enhancement such as bass boost, or electronic noise cancellation

We intend to carry a limited stock of Soundlab PX712 headphones that can be purchased from the Location Store for £13 a pair, but we are unable to guarantee continual availability.

You must bring your headphones to every practice session involving camera equipment, sound recording equipment or work in either of our media labs.

11.2.1.1 Media Arts Filming and Actors

The department takes very seriously the issue of providing actors with a copy of the film they worked on. They do not receive any payment for their services except travel expenses and so this is least you can do. In the past, directors have neglected to do this and it reflects very badly on both them and the department. We will treat this in the manner that College treats those with unpaid fees or library fines –
You will not be allowed to graduate until the deficit has been made good.
