1. Introduction to the College and your Department

1.1 Welcome

Welcome to Royal Holloway! Royal Holloway, University of London (hereafter the College) is one of the UK’s leading research-intensive universities, with twenty-one academic departments spanning the arts and humanities, social sciences and sciences.

The College was ranked 173rd in the world and 27th overall in the UK in the Times Higher Education (THE) World University Rankings 2016/17 (published 21 September 2016). Sitting within the top 25 per cent of universities in the UK for research rated ‘world-leading’ or ‘internationally excellent’ by the Research Excellence Framework (REF) 2014, the College was also ranked in the top one per cent of 16,000 higher education institutions across the globe, in the 25th edition of The World List of Universities and Other Institutions. The College combines world-class research with a truly global perspective while at the same time offering a campus and community with an intimate human scale. As a student studying toward a research degree with the College, you will have the opportunity to learn from internationally renowned academics and researchers.

During the course of your time with the College, you will pursue independent research in your academic department. The College offers a number of research degree programmes, including Master of Arts by Research, Master of Science by Research, Master of Philosophy (MPhil), Doctor of Philosophy (PhD), Doctor of Clinical Psychology (DClinPsy), Doctorate in Professional Studies (DPS) and Doctorate in Medicine (MD). Your successful progress will depend primarily on your own efforts, supported by your supervisors, but also by the research environment in your department and the quality of the research training you receive.

This handbook deals with aspects of research degree study that specifically relate to your Department. This should be read in conjunction with additional College documents as follows:

- The Code of Practice for Research Degree Students and Supervisors sets out good practice alongside additional information on policies and procedures that support the standards and expectations of the College. The Code is available via the Academic Quality and Policy Office (AQPO) webpage https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/regulations/home.aspx.

- The Research Degree Regulations set out the various standards that shape the regulatory framework of your research degree with the College. This includes a variety of essential information, ranging from admissions to academic progression and examination. The Regulations are available from AQPO via https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/regulations/home.aspx.

- The Doctoral School offers a range of information and advice to research degree students on subjects such as fees and funding or changes to your registration status. The Doctoral School website is a key repository for this information and will provide you with easy access to a variety of documentation and guidance that you may need during your studies https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/iquad/doctoralschool/homepage.aspx.

1.2 Your registration status

Your registration status as a research degree student may change through the course of your studies with the College. For example, students who wish to study toward registration on a PhD are initially registered for an MPhil degree. Additionally, you may also elect to alter your mode of study from full-time to part-time or vice-versa.

You should consult the Research Degree Regulations, in the first instance, for further information on the College’s criteria for changes to registration status. The Regulations also contain important information on the timeframes within which the College expects students to complete the upgrade from MPhil to PhD as well as the required timeframe for completion of the degree itself.

1.3 How to find your Department

The Department of Music is located in Wettons Terrace, standing to the North of the A30 and approached by footbridge from the main College campus. This can be found on the College campus map as building 62. Wettons Terrace contains staff and teaching rooms, administrative offices, an IT suite and a student common room. Performance teaching and practice rooms are in neighbouring buildings: Woodlands and Woodlands Cottage (buildings 65 and 66 on the campus map). Music IT studios and world music facilities are in the North Tower of the Founders Building. The Boilerhouse Auditorium (building 14 on the campus map) and Wettons Annexe, behind Wettons Terrace, provide large rehearsal spaces.

Access to Wettons Terrace and the practice rooms in Woodlands/Woodlands Cottage is by means of the College RCS swipecard. All students receive a card as a matter of course.

Bedford Square: Royal Holloway also has a central London base at Bedford Square, 2 Gower Street, WC1E 6DP. This is widely used for postgraduate activities and is situated a few minutes’ walk from the British Museum and the University of London Senate House library. The nearest tube stations are Euston Square, Goodge Street, Russell Square and Tottenham Court Road, which are all about a five minute walk away. Room bookings: bedfordsquare@rhul.ac.uk

1.4 Map of the Egham campus

Please note, student parking is very limited and a parking permit is required, which can be obtained via Security. You will need proof of insurance and a suitable form of photographic ID before a permit will be issued.

Practical information

The Music Department at Royal Holloway has grown out of a tradition of musical activity at the College going back to its earliest years. The Department is now one of the most distinguished in the country. We achieved an extremely high ranking in the 2014 Research Excellence Framework (REF), which placed us 3rd among Music departments for the quality of our research. We currently have 18 academic staff, 26 visiting instrumental teachers and 4 administrative staff. The vibrant and diverse musical life of the Department is reflected both in our scholarship (covering western music from the Middle Ages to Contemporary Music but also many other musical traditions from around the world) and in our music-making (reflected in a range of ensembles, concerts and events as well as through composition and studio work). At any given time, there are about 220 undergraduates enrolled on degree programmes in Music, and about 60 postgraduates (around 20 studying for a Masters degree, and about 40 for a PhD).

1.8 Master of Arts by Research in your Department
The primary teaching tool for the Master of Arts by Research is the individual supervision session. The frequency of such sessions may vary, depending on the pacing of the work, although one meeting per fortnight during term time would be normal for a full-time student.

Master of Arts by Research students are also required to pass at least one taught course. This might be the one offered by the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences for all Master of Arts by Research Students, but it might equally be a relevant course from the MMus in Advanced Musical Studies. This should be discussed and agreed with your supervisor and the Director of Graduate Studies during Induction Week. See Research Degree Regulations, Appendix 1.

Master of Arts by Research students are eligible for research expenses from the department to support their work. See section 15.2 below.

2.1 Students’ Union Royal Holloway University of London (SURHUL)
The Students’ Union Royal Holloway University of London (SURHUL) is a registered charity (Registered No: 1141998) and actively represents the students of Royal Holloway University of London.

SURHUL is led by sabbatical officers and Executive Officers who work alongside a team of permanent staff. SURHUL promotes your needs and interests by offering employment, participation, entertainment, support & advice, your clubs & societies, catering, transport, volunteering, campaigning and advocacy. All of which complement your academic study, ensuring that your University experience is the best that it can be. For further information please refer to their website at http://www.su.rhul.ac.uk/about/.

2.2 Your College Email Account

The College provides an email address for you free of charge and stores the address in a College email directory (the Global Address List). Your account is easily accessible, both on and off campus, via the Student Portal https://campus-connect.royalholloway.ac.uk/cp/home/displaylogin (Campus Connect) or direct via Outlook.com http://outlook.com/. It is essential to note that this email account will be used for all routine correspondence and news from the College and its departments and services. Your College email will very likely also be used for urgent communication, including correspondence from your supervisors, or to give or confirm instructions or information related to teaching so it is vital that you check your emails regularly.

In the event that you would prefer to use a commercial email service you are able to connect your College email account so that it automatically forwards any messages you receive. You can find detailed instructions on how to forward mail by visiting http://help.outlook.com/ and searching for ‘forwarding’. In the event that you experience any problems, please contact the IT Service Desk.

2.3 Post

All post addressed to you in your Department will be delivered to student pigeonholes (alphabetical by surname) in Room 002, the Student Common Room. At the end of each term student pigeonholes are cleared of accumulated mail, so please try to ensure you check it at regular intervals. Please also note, Registry, among other professional services within the College, will often send correspondence by internal post and your Supervisor(s) may also return work to you via the pigeonholes.

2.4 Telephone and postal address

It is imperative that the College has the most up-to-date contact details for you. As such, please ensure that you update your telephone number (mobile and landline) and postal address (term-time and forwarding) as quickly as possible when they are changed via the Student Portal (Campus Connect) https://campus-connect.royalholloway.ac.uk/cp/home/displaylogin.

Please note, it is the policy of the College that staff are not permitted to disclose or share your information, including your contact details, with anybody else (including parents, relatives or fellow students) without your prior written permission to release this information. For further information please refer to the Information Compliance webpage via https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/aboutus/governancematters/accesstoinformation/home.aspx.

2.5 IT Services

The College IT Service Desk https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/it/home.aspx offers a range of support covering all aspects of IT services, such as email access, connecting to the College’s wireless network, connecting devices such as iPads and making use of College printing facilities.

The IT Service Desk will also be able to provide expert advice and guidance on a range of more specific IT issues, should you experience any problems. They also offer a range of free software, including Microsoft 365, NVivo and SPSS. For more information visit their website at https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/it/studentpurchasing.aspx.

2.6 Withdrawal of visa

If you are in receipt of a Tier 4 Student Visa sponsored by Royal Holloway, it is a requirement of your Visa that you attend classes and supervisory sessions and complete assessments. This is also a requirement of the College's academic regulations.

The College has a legal responsibility to report any student admitted to the College on a student visa who does not appear to be meeting the attendance requirements to UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI). Therefore if you fail to meet UKVI visa requirements and/or fail to respond to informal and formal warnings from the College in this regard you could have your sponsorship withdrawn, your Visa cancelled and your registration with the College terminated. The termination of registration due to a breach in Visa requirements is conducted independently of the College's formal warning process and the decision is not open to appeal.

Further information on visa and immigration information for current students is available from Student Services via https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/studentservicescentre/visas/home.aspx.
2.7 Master of Arts by Research and MPhil/PhD Supervision and Other Support

The primary teaching tool is the individual supervision session. The frequency of such sessions necessarily varies depending on the pacing of the work, although one meeting per fortnight is common for a full-time MPhil/PhD student in the early stages of a programme, and one meeting every four to six weeks thereafter. Similarly, the supervisory relationship necessarily changes as the student advances towards the level of a colleague in the field. Both supervisors and their students have clear responsibilities (laid out in the Code of Practice for the Academic Welfare of Postgraduate Research Students), effective adherence to which is monitored closely by the Department. Students should attend a joint supervision with both members of their supervisory team at least twice per academic year.

Students and supervisors should agree a record of each supervision, and the supervisor should lodge this record in the Music Department Office.

Postgraduate students are each allocated a supervisory team of supervisor and either advisor or ‘second supervisor’. In the case of Master of Arts by Research and MPhil/PhD students, the supervisor will obviously be the main contact for much of a student’s work. The advisor/second supervisor is also available to discuss both academic matters (he/she may have some useful alternative perspectives to offer) and personal ones.

All members of staff post outside their individual staff rooms two separate and regular ‘office hours’ each week when they are available to see students without appointment on any matter. Excepting emergencies, students are asked make an appointment via email if they wish to see a member of staff outside these hours.

Supervisors, second supervisors, and advisors will offer advice about work, help overcome academic or personal difficulties and discuss course choices, and they should ultimately be the members of staff best equipped to write references for jobs or for further study. The Director of Graduate Studies and/or Head of Department also will see any student who wishes to discuss matters academic or personal.

Students with a serious case for a change of supervisor/advisor should approach the Director of Graduate Studies and/or Head of Department as appropriate.

Students in financial difficulty should contact the Director of Graduate Studies and/or the Head of Department for details of College schemes to provide aid in terms of loans or additional grants. Although the Department has no funds for such purposes, we may be able to provide advice on and assistance with applications to appropriate College or external bodies.

3 Annual review and upgrade

Although you will meet with your supervisor regularly during the academic year, your academic progress is formally reviewed at least once every twelve months, unless you have interrupted your studies, in which case the review will take place not more than two months after you have formally resumed your studies.

Annual reviews, and upgrades for students registered for an MPhil/PhD, are conducted in a face-to-face meeting between you and a panel. As a minimum, your annual review will be conducted with at least one member of your supervisory team present plus one member of staff who is completely independent of your supervisory team. Where you are undertaking a review for the purpose of upgrading your degree to PhD, your panel will include a minimum of three members, with at least one member of your supervisory team and one member of staff who is completely independent of your supervisory team in attendance. A member of your panel may be present via video conferencing, with your prior agreement, in cases where there are extenuating circumstances that mean they are unable to be present in person.

It is important to remember that the upgrade from MPhil to PhD is not an automatic right. In the majority of cases a panel will indicate that they are satisfied with a student’s progress. In some cases, however, the panel may feel that the work presented does not meet the required standard for doctoral research. In such cases, the panel will likely decide not to permit the student to upgrade.

In the event that your first attempt to upgrade from MPhil to PhD is unsuccessful, your panel may permit you to have a second and final attempt which must take place within twenty-four months of full-time study or forty-eight months of part-time study. These periods are defined in line with the College’s Research Degree Regulations available online via http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/regulations/home.aspx.

At the end of your annual review/upgrade meeting your panel will fill in a Research Degree Student Review - Annual Review Form or Research Degree Student Review - Upgrade Form. This will detail the outcome of your review/upgrade and will provide you with an opportunity to add your own comments. Further information on annual reviews and upgrades along with the relevant forms is available online via http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/examinations/researchdegrees/upgrades.aspx.

3.1 Research Degree Student Deadlines
If you want the annual review or upgrade Panel to be made aware of extenuating circumstances that have affected your study you should submit your statement and supporting evidence to the Panel Chair within the deadline set by the department/school for the submission of material for the upgrade or review.

In the case of circumstances relating only to your performance at an upgrade or review meeting or the oral examination (viva), you should inform the panel members or examiners of the circumstances prior to the meeting or oral examination and submit the statement and supporting evidence within seven days to your department in the case of upgrade/review meetings and Student Administration (researchdegrees@rhul.ac.uk) in the case of an oral examination. You must submit the request in writing and ensure it is accompanied by appropriate supporting evidence, in line with the Instructions to Candidates available online via https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/examinations/examinations/home.aspx.

3.2 Music department’s annual review and upgrade process
The Annual Review of postgraduate students (MMus, MA by Research, MPhil, PhD) in the Department normally takes place at or near the beginning of the summer term. This review draws upon verbal and/or written reports from the supervisor, adviser and student. It is an important occasion at which attendance is obligatory; it may be deferred only in exceptional circumstances (e.g. research trips abroad) and with the permission of the Head of Department; in such cases, an alternative date will be arranged.

For the Annual Review, students are expected to supply written work as specified below. One copy must be submitted to the Department Office two weeks before the date of the Review meeting, which will be kept on file. You must also submit electronic copies of the documents, and, if particular panel members require a hard copy, you will be asked to provide one. Normal standards of scholarly presentation apply.

(i) MPhil and PhD students appearing for their first Annual Review (except those in Composition) and Master of Arts by Research students should submit i) a detailed progress report, including an account of literature read and written work produced (c.500 words), ii) an outline or abstract of the intended thesis, and iii) a plan for its projected completion. Composition students should submit i) a detailed progress report (c.500 words), ii) an outline of the intended portfolio, and iii) a plan for its projected completion.

(ii) MPhil and PhD students appearing for their second or subsequent Annual Review (except those in Composition) should submit i) a detailed progress report (c.1000 words), ii) a detailed plan of the proposed thesis – including (a) a brief abstract containing an overall summary of the intended work, and (b) an account presented chapter-by-chapter, plus details of any appendices – and iii) a timetable for completion. Composition students should submit i) a progress report (c.650 words) including details of performances of works, ii) a plan of the proposed portfolio of compositions (piece-by-piece, with timings; allow c.200 words per piece), and iii) a timetable for completion.

(iii) All MPhil/PhD students should also bring with them i) their copy of the completed Research Training Log from the previous year, ii) a log and brief notes of all supervision meetings since the previous review meeting (or upgrade) (max. two A4 sides of compiled notes), and iii) their email receipt confirming they have completed and submitted the online student feedback form.

There may be circumstances in which it is necessary to hold other formal reviews at other times in the year, for example in cases where a student’s situation following the Annual Review needs further consideration. Such a review, and for that matter any other reviews during the year, may be initiated by the student or by the supervisor. All students in the fourth ('writing up') year of their PhD will be required to produce a ‘Completion Timetable’ around 8-9 months before their final submission date. At this point they may also be invited to attend an informal meeting involving their supervisor and the Director of Graduate Studies.

The review procedure is designed to support a student’s work and to nip any potential problems in the bud. If research is deemed unsatisfactory at any stage in the review process, the student will be warned in writing by the Head of Department in accordance with the procedures stipulated in the College’s Code of Practice for the Academic Welfare of Postgraduate Research Students. Failure to improve will compel the Department to initiate proceedings to suspend or terminate registration. Obviously we hope that things will not reach this stage: hence the regular reviews. But students, too, have a responsibility to monitor their progress, and they should not feel afraid to air any worries they may have either with their supervisor or adviser, or indeed with the Director of Graduate Studies or Head of Department. It is better to sort such things out sooner than later.

3.3 Process for upgrading from MPhil to PhD

The upgrade from MPhil to PhD is made on departmental recommendation and after successfully passing at least one Annual Review. The Department will refuse admission to the PhD if, in its opinion, a student is not capable of achieving the appropriate standard, or if a subject is unsuitable for expansion into a PhD, regardless of the status of a student’s funding for such a programme.

MPhil students applying to upgrade to PhD status will agree a timetable of submission (see below) with their supervisor. The upgrade proceedings will normally be initiated by the supervisor. The Application for Upgrade will be communicated to the Director of Graduate Studies (DoGS). In the case of full-time students this will normally occur 18-20 months after initial registration, and in the case of part-time students, 24–36 months after initial registration. The College does not normally approve the transfer of students to PhD status after 24 months of full-time-equivalent registration.

The DoGS will convene a suitable Upgrade Sub-committee normally consisting of the DoGS, the supervisor, the second supervisor or adviser and/or another suitable member of the academic staff. The Sub-committee will meet after having scrutinized the Upgrade documents (as below) submitted by the student. The student will be expected to appear before this Sub-committee for an interview lasting about 45 minutes. The format of the Upgrade interview is intended to serve as preparation for the student’s final viva voce examination, with the supervisor taking a back seat. In addition to the interview, students should expect to give a presentation of their work to the department immediately prior to the upgrade meeting, lasting about 20 minutes (either a formal research paper, or a broader presentation, by prior agreement). This will normally take place on a Departmental Postgraduate Day.

If an upgrade application is unsuccessful and a student wishes to appeal against the decision, he/she may write to the Head of Department along the lines of the procedures described in the Research Degree Regulations under ‘Academic Appeals Procedures’, and within no more than four weeks of receipt of the written decision of the Upgrade Sub-committee.

MPhil students other than those in Composition should (in agreement with the supervisor) submit one copy of the following documents to the DoGS at least two weeks before the date fixed for the upgrade meeting, and if panel members require it, an additional hard copy:

(i) a detailed plan of chapters of the proposed PhD thesis, together with a brief abstract containing an overall summary of the intended work;

(ii) two or more complete chapters (or, exceptionally, one extended chapter) consisting normally of not less than 12,000 words in total, which it is intended will form (with appropriate revisions) a part of the PhD thesis (this material should be representative of the content of the final thesis, and should not solely comprise, though may include, a literature review);

(iii) a timetable for the completion of the research and writing-up.

(iv) their copy of the completed Research Training Log from the previous year, a log and brief notes of all supervision meetings since the previous review meeting (or upgrade) (max. two A4 sides of compiled notes), and their email receipt confirming they have completed and submitted the online student feedback form.

MPhil students in Composition should (in agreement with the supervisor) submit one copy of the following documents to the DoGS at least two weeks before the date fixed for the upgrade meeting, and if panel members require it, a further hard copy:

either a complete composition or complete sections of a composition, or a collection of compositions written in the period since initial MPhil registration, with a duration of 10-15 minutes;

(i) a recording of the above music;

(ii) an extended (c.2000 words) commentary on the structure and compositional methods employed in the piece;
(iii) a detailed plan of the contents of the proposed PhD portfolio, with timings, and with some technical comments for each proposed piece;

(iv) a timetable for the completion of the portfolio and its accompanying documents and recordings.

(v) their copy of the completed Research Training Log from the previous year, a log and brief notes of all supervision meetings since the previous review meeting (or upgrade) (max. two A4 sides of compiled notes), and their email receipt confirming they have completed and submitted the online student feedback form.

Normal standards of scholarly presentation apply to all upgrade submissions. The late submission of transfer material may result in the postponement of the Upgrade meeting.

All MPhil students should also bring to the upgrade meeting their copy of

i) the completed Research Training Log from the previous year, ii) a log of all supervision meetings since the previous review meeting, and

iii) their email receipt confirming they have completed and submitted the online student feedback form.

3.4 Illness and other extenuating circumstances

If you are a Research Degree student, you may want the annual review or upgrade panel to be made aware of how your academic performance over the year has been affected by illness or extenuating circumstances. In such cases you should submit your statement and supporting evidence to the panel chair within the deadline set by the Department for the submission of material for the upgrade or review. Ideally you should have discussed any such issues with your supervisor or the Director of Graduate Studies before the meeting. The Department may recommend that you interrupt your studies until your personal circumstances are such that you are in a position to take up your studies again. The Director of Graduate Studies will be able to inform you about the process to be followed to request an interruption.

In the case of circumstances relating only to your performance at an upgrade or review meeting, you should inform the panel members or examiners of the circumstances no later than the start of the upgrade / review and submit the statement and supporting evidence not more than seven days later to the Department Office.

If you feel that your academic performance on the date of the oral examination may be substantially affected by unexpected medical or other personal circumstances, you should inform the examiners of your situation no later than the start of the oral examination so that they can make a decision on whether or not to proceed. The examiners may require you to submit evidence of these circumstances to the Examinations and Research Degrees Office within seven days.

4 Interrupting your studies

The College's Research Degree Regulations permit you to interrupt your studies for up to twenty-four months (whether consecutively or otherwise) on financial, medical or personal grounds on the recommendation of your supervisor and Director of Graduate Studies. Any period of interruption will only normally be permitted on exceptional grounds and must be approved by the College Board of Examiners Executive Committee (CBEEC). Students are also entitled to request an interruption of studies for reasons of maternity, paternity or adoption leave.

In the first instance, please contact your supervisor to discuss your interruption of studies. A request for interruption of studies must be submitted online on your behalf by your department, usually by the Director of Graduate Studies, using the required form via https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/iquad/services/academicqualityandpolicyoffice/forms/pgrwaiver.aspx.

It is essential that adequate supporting evidence is submitted with the request. For further information on supporting evidence, please refer to Appendix B of the College’s guidance notes available online via https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/documents/pdf/exams/extenuatingcircumstances-guidanceforstudents.pdf. If you are still uncertain what evidence is suitable, please contact researchdegrees@royalholloway.ac.uk for advice. Where applications are submitted that lack adequate supporting evidence, it is very likely that they will be denied or subject to significant delays. The request will be sent to the Vice-Principal (Education) for consideration on behalf of the CBEEC and you will be informed whether the request has been approved or not.

It is essential that you contact your supervisor or department at the very earliest possibility, should you find that you require a period of interruption to your studies. Please note, a back-dated (or retrospective) interruption will only be considered on the most exceptional grounds and in cases where the interruption sought is for a very limited period.

4.1 Interruptions for students who are sponsored by the College on a Tier 4 visa
If you interrupt your studies and you are in receipt of a Tier 4 Student Visa sponsored by Royal Holloway, the College will withdraw its sponsorship for the duration of your interruption and you are obliged by the Home Office to leave the UK for this period. Before you return from interruption, you will need to apply for a new visa. For further information on this process please refer to the Student Services webpage at https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/studentservicescentre/visas/home.aspx.

In exceptional circumstances, and if your interruption is for a period less than sixty days, you may be permitted to remain in the UK during the period of interruption. To discuss the possibility of this 'authorised absence', please contact student-administration@royalholloway.ac.uk.

4.2 Interruptions for students funded by a Research Council or College Scholarship
It is essential that, prior to requesting the interruption, you check with your funding body whether the conditions of your scholarship permit you to interrupt your studies. For advice about this, please contact scholarshipadministration@royalholloway.ac.uk.

If you are funded by a Research Council and would like to request maternity leave or short term (up to 13 weeks) sick leave, please click refer to the Doctoral School webpage for further information

4.3 Your thesis deadline and status during an interruption of studies
If your interruption request is approved, your period of interruption will be added on to your thesis submission deadline (e.g. a student with a 22 September 2018 deadline who interrupts for 6 months would now have a new submission deadline of 22 March 2019). Please note, exceptions do apply where you are funded by a Research Council as below:

- Although the thesis submission deadline set by the College may be extended, it may not be extended by your Research Council. In such cases, the Research Council deadline takes precedence. If you have queries regarding this, please contact scholarshipadministration@royalholloway.ac.uk.
- If you have requested up to 13 weeks sick leave, your thesis submission deadline will not be affected by this period of leave.
During the course of your interruption of studies you remain a registered student with the College and are subject to College Regulations. Unless you are interrupting your studies on the grounds of maternity, paternity or adoption, or in exceptional circumstances relating to mental health conditions, you do not have the right to use College facilities or receive supervision during the period of interruption, other than occasional access to your supervisor by arrangement.

5 Submission of your thesis and your viva

As the thesis is nearing completion you will need to submit a formal entry to the final examination to the Student Administration Office. Full details on entry for the examination (or re-entry in the case of resubmissions), submission and examination of the thesis are available on Examinations webpage for Research Degree students http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/examinations/researchdegrees/students.aspx. Students should also consult the Research Degree Regulations for further details about, for example, the requirements of the thesis (word length), the conduct of the final examination, and possible outcomes of the examination http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/regulations/home.aspx.

Please note especially the Nomination of Examiners Flowchart on the above website: your examiners need to be approved by the Music Department before they can be signed off by the Director of Graduate Studies. You and your supervisor should therefore approach the DoGS with the names of your proposed examiner before approaching the examiners themselves. You may do this by email in the first instance. Once your proposed examiners have been approved by the department, the form can be completed and submitted for approval by the College Exams Office.

In terms of word length you should be aware that College regulations stipulate a maximum length for MPhil and PhD theses. If you exceed the word length stated in the Regulations or produce a thesis that is deemed to be too short, the examiners may refer the thesis for resubmission requiring it to be shortened to meet the word length requirement or extended to include more content, respectively.

5.1 Guidelines for the MPhil and PhD in Composition

The following guidelines complement the Graduate Research Regulations for the MPhil and PhD in Composition. Each candidate should discuss these guidelines with her/his supervisor to ensure that all issues have been addressed prior to and at the time of submission.

PhD guidelines

Candidates at Royal Holloway for the University of London PhD in Composition will present a portfolio of substantial musical compositions that demonstrate coherence and originality in invention, as well as in the treatment of existing musical techniques. The term 'substantial' may apply to one or more of the following elements: duration, number of musicians employed in performing a work or the breadth and detail of the musical materials employed and developed in the music. The guide-duration for the complete portfolio is between 70 and 100 minutes, the actual duration is to be negotiated by each student with her/his supervisor and confirmed by the Director of Graduate Study.

The portfolio must be accompanied by a written commentary comprising a discussion of the artistic and aesthetic concerns addressed in the creation of the portfolio and an exposition of the methods and processes employed. The length of the commentary is negotiated between a student and her/his supervisor and confirmed by the Director of Graduate Study, normally at upgrade; as a guide, commentaries tend to be between 10,000 and 20,000 words. The commentary must be prepared according to departmental guidelines for the presentation of written work.

The portfolio should also be accompanied by recordings of as many of the works contained in the portfolio as possible, but recordings of at least three works must be provided, and of all works involving free procedures.

MPhil guidelines
Candidates at Royal Holloway for the University of London MPhil in Composition will present a portfolio of substantial musical compositions that demonstrate coherence and originality in invention, as well as in the treatment of existing musical techniques. The term 'substantial' may apply to one or more of the following elements: duration, number of musicians employed in performing a work or the breadth and detail of the musical materials employed and developed in the music. The guide-duration for the complete portfolio is between 40 and 60 minutes, the actual duration to be negotiated by each student with her/his supervisor and confirmed by the Director of Graduate Study.

The portfolio must be accompanied by a written commentary comprising a discussion of the artistic and aesthetic concerns addressed in the creation of the portfolio and an exposition of the methods and processes employed. The length of the commentary is negotiated between a student and her/his supervisor and confirmed by the Director of Graduate Study, normally at upgrade; as a guide, commentaries tend to be between 7,000 and 12,000 words. The commentary must be prepared according to departmental guidelines for the presentation of written work.

The portfolio should also be accompanied by recordings of as many of the works contained in the portfolio as possible, but recordings of at least two works must be provided, and of all works involving free procedures.

General comments
The general distinction between a submission for the degree of PhD and for the degree of MPhil is outlined in 13(5) of the Graduate Research Regulations. In the case of a composition submission a PhD portfolio will manifest substantial length or scope as well as a high degree of originality and will form a distinct contribution to the field of composition. A submission for the degree of MPhil will include original work demonstrating that the compositional field being researched has been thoroughly surveyed and assimilated into the candidate's own practical work.

5.2 Electronic submission of the final PhD theses
In order for your research degree to be awarded, an electronic version of your PhD thesis needs to be submitted to the College’s research information system, Pure. The College strongly recommends that you check the details of these requirements well in advance of submission as they contain important information on copyright and Open Access https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/research/puresupport/ethesis/ethesis.aspx.

5.3 Random submission of theses to Turnitin
To help deter plagiarism, it is College policy to select a random sample of final research degree theses for submission to the plagiarism detection software, Turnitin, before the examination process is initiated. Exemptions are in place for theses covered by commercial confidentiality agreements. Turnitin reports are reviewed by the Director of Graduate Studies in your department. Should concerns be raised you will be notified by the department.

6 Preparation for the final examination
The College offers viva training for research student’s final examination with sessions run for students in Arts and Social Sciences, Science and Management, Economics, and Law. Further information on these courses is available via Researcher Development Programme - Royal Holloway Doctoral School. This training is compulsory for research degree students.

7 Special arrangements for the annual review, upgrade or viva

If you have a disability, specific learning difficulty or impairment and wish to ask for reasonable adjustments to be made to the conduct of the final examination (viva) you should consult Section 16 paragraph (10) the Research Degree Regulations http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/regulations/home.aspx for details of how to make such a request. Should you need similar adjustments for your annual review/upgrade meeting, these should be discussed with your supervisor ahead of the meeting so that appropriate arrangements can be made.

8 Research Skills and Training

You should discuss your research skills training needs with your supervisor and adviser soon after you start your research degree and fill out the Research Student Training Log with details of courses that you should attend during the year. Full time students are required to do an average of 5 days training per year across the three years of study (none are required in the ‘writing up’ 4th year), and an average of 2.5 days per year for part-time students. Details of requirements and what counts as training can be found under the information for current students on the department website (see https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/music/documents/pdf/training-requirements-for-mphil-and-PhD.pdf). Further information and guidance at college level can be found online via http://www.vitae.ac.uk/researchers/428241/Researcher-Development-Framework.html.

8.1 Research Development Programme

The College’s Researcher Development Programme is a series of transferable skills courses designed for research students to help you to develop your skills alongside your research. Some of these courses are specifically designed to help students complete their research degree, while others help develop more general skills and enhance your employability. The programme is structured using the Vitae Researcher Development Framework. For further information please refer to their website at http://www.vitae.ac.uk/researchers/428241/Researcher-Development-Framework.html.

8.2 Teaching experience and training

Your Department may be in a position to offer you opportunities to undertake teaching and/or demonstrating opportunities. In the event that you are employed in a lead teaching role you are required to register for the College’s inSTIL programme (Programme in Skills of Teaching to Inspire Learning) http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/registry/educational-development/prof-dev/instit-overview.html.

If you are teaching as part of a team, you may choose to do this programme but are not required to do so. Teaching observations are an intrinsic element of the inSTIL programme, and hence you must be engaged in teaching to complete inSTIL. The inSTIL programme is worth 15 M level credits and counts as five days towards your skills training objectives. Further details on the programme are available via telephone on +44 (0) 1784 41 6337 or +44 (0) 1784 27 6250 or by contacting Educational Development at edc@rhul.ac.uk.

In the event that you are not engaged in teaching activities but would like to learn more about teaching in higher education, the College offers a series of ‘Introduction to Teaching and Learning in Higher Education’ workshop. Further information is available online via http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/registry/educational-development/prof-dev/instil-overview.html.

The training requirement can also be fulfilled through:

- Taking courses on the Generic Skills Programme - both face-to-face and online courses, see https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/iquad/doctorschool/researchskillstraining/researchskills.asp
- Departmental courses which offer generic skills training (subject-specific training courses cannot be used to meet the requirements)
- By attending courses relevant to study at other institutions e.g. St George’s, University of London and Kingston University; or online courses if a certificate of completion is gained
- By doing language training (individual lessons or courses)
- Completion of the inSTIL teacher-training programme (which can only be taken when you are teaching at the College) – this counts as 5 days research training
- Attendance at reading groups such as HARC
- Running reading groups

Unless stated, these count according to how many hours the given course or activity is, so 3 hours can be half a day, and twice that a full day.

The following research activities also count as follows:

- submission of conference paper abstract: half day
- presentation of poster at conference: half day
- presentation of conference paper: 1.5 days
- attendance at a conference: 0.5 days for a one day conference and maximum 1 day for conferences any longer than that.
- submission of paper or book chapter for publication: 2 days
- organisation of conference as part of a committee: 2 days
- volunteer to help at a conference for one day: 1 day
- organizing a Music Department PG day: 1 day
- giving a paper at a Music Department PG day: 1 day
- attending a PG day: 0.5 day (please note that full time PGR students must attend at least 2 PG days in a year, and part time students one, as attendance requirements)

NB: some supervisors run workshops for their students, where they present work. This is formally listed as supervision, so does not count for research training. Please include maximum 1 hour supervision per student presenting in such a seminar under supervision, unless their presenting and getting feedback on their work is for longer than that.

8.3 Department Seminars, Colloquia, Special Lectures etc

The MMus course, MU5500 Skills in Advanced Musical Studies includes seminars led by members of RHUL staff, guest seminars on methodology from visiting specialists, and may involve visits to major research libraries and archives. In whole or in part, it forms part of the Department’s general induction/training available to incoming MPhil/PhD students.

The Department runs a general Research Colloquium, including visiting speakers, on Tuesdays. There are also special lectures, seminars, study-days and conferences.

Annual Postgraduate Days take place four times in the academic year, two in term 1, and one in each of terms 2 and 3. It is expected that MA by Research and MPhil/PhD students will make every effort to attend the colloquia and Postgraduate Days and must attend at least two.

Details of the Research Colloquium and of series run by other Music Departments are posted on the postgraduate notice boards in the Department. It is expected that MPhil/PhD students will give papers and other public presentations regularly throughout their time at RHUL, and normally, at least one paper/presentation per year is required from the second year of full-time study onwards (or part-time equivalent).

MMus/MA by Research/PhD Discussion Group
MMus, MA by Research and PhD students are able to use room WT003 on Tuesday afternoons from 2-4pm on an informal basis for discussion / reading groups. Please book via the Department Office.

The Internet and World Wide Web are indispensable as a source and disseminator of information, and for the exchange of ideas. A good place to start is the Music Department's home-page.

9 Academic writing skills

The College offers courses on academic writing, which can count towards your skills training objectives. For further details on these courses and additional support that is available please refer to the Research Skills Training pages at Researcher Development Programme - Royal Holloway Doctoral School.

CeDAS will offer you additional support in the event that English is not your first language. These courses do not, however, count towards your training requirements. CeDAS also oversees the Royal Holloway Proofreading Scheme, which enables students to pay for an approved third-party proofreader to identify surface error in final drafts. Please note, the College does not permit the use of paid third-party proofreaders who are not part of this scheme. For further details, please refer to the CeDAS webpage www.royalholloway.ac.uk/cedas.

10 Students in need of support (including disabled students)

The College offers a high level of student welfare support which includes a comprehensive Health Centre, a highly regarded Counselling Service, dedicated educational and disability support, as well as a wealth of financial, career and other advice. Further details of each service can be found on the Help and Support pages at Help and support - Royal Holloway Student Intranet.

If you have a disability or specific learning difficulty, it is important that you bring it to the College’s attention as soon as possible. Your first point of contact for advice and guidance is your Disability & Dyslexia Services (DDS) representative in your Department (details below).

Name: Louise Mackay
Email: louise.mackay@rhul.ac.uk
Phone: 01784 443532

Please also contact DDS directly via disability-dyslexia@royalholloway.ac.uk or 01784 276473.

11 Plagiarism and other academic offences

The College takes the issue of plagiarism and other assessment offences extremely seriously. The College defines what constitutes an assessment offence (e.g. plagiarism, collusion, falsification) as well as the procedures to be followed for the investigation of an alleged assessment offence and possible outcomes in the College’s Regulations on Assessment Offences.
12 Appeals and Complaints

In the event that you wish to submit an appeal or a complaint please refer to the Code of Practice for Research Degree Students and Supervisors and the Research Degree Regulations. Both of which are available online via https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/regulations/home.aspx.

Further information on the College’s appeals and complaints processes is available here: https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/iquad/services/academicqualityandpolicyoffice/home.aspx.

12.1 Appeals
By submitting an academic appeal, you are making a request for a decision made by the College relating to your academic studies or academic progress to be reconsidered. This must be done within 15 working days of the date on which you were formally informed about the decision either through Campus Connect (e.g. for end of year assessment results) or by letter (e.g. annual review, upgrade, final viva examination). This can include reference to a past complaint made and investigated.

Please note, only the following can be investigated through the appeals process:

- The outcome of Boards of Examiners, such as the outcomes of coursework or examinations, academic progression, degree classification or degree award, and termination of registration by the College Board of Examiners. This includes decisions made by an upgrade panel or an MPhil/PhD viva panel.
- Termination of registration on academic grounds through the formal warning procedure
- Penalties applied for examination and assessment offences
- Reconsideration of requests for exam access arrangements
- A decision made by a Fitness to Practice Panel

In the event that you wish to submit an academic appeal, please refer to the following guidance: Make an academic appeal - Royal Holloway Student Intranet

Further information on the appeals process is also available in the Sections 21 and 22 of the Research Degree Regulations. It is essential that you refer to this in the first instance as it outlines the grounds upon which an appeal against an academic decision may be submitted http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/academicsupport/regulations/home.aspx.

12.2 Complaints
A complaint is where, as a result of your experience at the College, you feel dissatisfied about the provision of services or facilities and would like your concerns to be investigated. Your concerns may be investigated under the Complaints Procedure for Students but normally only within three months of the incident or action being complained about.

If you have a complaint relating to any aspect of the Department or its staff or to any academic or College matter, you should first discuss it informally with your Supervisor(s), Advisor, Director of Graduate Studies or another member of staff in the Department as soon as possible. In the majority of cases complaints can be resolved through such an informal route. In those cases where the complaint cannot be resolved in this way, you may want to submit a formal complaint. Full details of how to pursue complaints through both informal and formal routes are set out in the College’s
College Complaints Procedures for students

Where you have submitted an academic appeal and your grounds for appeal are effectively dependent on the outcome of the complaint, the College may determine that the nature of your appeal requires investigation under the Complaints Procedure first. In this situation your case will be referred to the College Secretary’s Office. You will be notified of this and provided with further guidance. Please note, in such cases your appeal investigation will be delayed until the complaint investigation is complete. The College will endeavour to complete these processes as quickly as possible; however, a thorough investigation takes time, so the College strongly advises that you continue to make plans on the basis that your appeal is unsuccessful.

For further information on the complaints process, please refer to the AQPO webpage Academic Quality and Policy Office

13 Student Charter

The College aims to bring all students into a close, harmonious relationship with each other and with the wider community. The Student Charter outlines how you can support the College in achieving these goals and also seeks to encourage you to act as an effective ambassador for the College, during your time as a student and later as part of the College’s alumni

This Charter is not intended to constitute a binding agreement but is offered as a framework of aspirations, designed to be of benefit primarily to you as a student and to underpin the College’s aim of ensuring that you have a highly enjoyable and rewarding experience during the course of your research degree. You can find further information about student life online here

As a research degree student you will also be asked to complete the College's online feedback questionnaire for research degrees. This internal survey is conducted every two years, and is available to complete online from early April until mid-May. It is important that you take the time to complete this questionnaire as it is often a requirement for your annual review or upgrade. Each alternate year, the College also takes part in the national Postgraduate Research Experience Survey (PRES).

14 Library Services, Facilities and Resources

14.1 Computers

There are a total of fourteen open access PC Labs available on campus which you can use, including six in the Computer Centre. For security reasons access to these PC Labs is restricted at night and at weekends by a door entry system operated via your College card. Details of these PC Labs, including access times and maps showing how to get to them can be found under the descriptions

The Wettons Terrace PC Lab/IT suite is available to use 24/7 via your College card.

The IT suite on the ground floor of Wettons Terrace was created with the help of a generous beneftication by Miss Agnes Divine, a former member of the College. It contains 18 networked PCs, with standard word-processing, database, internet and music-processing software (including Finale, Sibelius and EarMaster). One computer in the Music IT suite has Photoscore installed and is connected to a scanner. The hardware and software is maintained by the College’s Computer Centre, to whom all issues and problems should be addressed. The Sibelius software is also installed on all 9 PCs in the first floor PC Suite in Founders Library, Doctoral Hub, Computer Centre PC lab 1, Bedford library level 1, Bedford Square student PCs in the basement.

14.2 Graduate Spaces

The College offers a number of areas specifically for postgraduates. http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/studyhere/postgraduate/facilitiesandacademicsupport.aspx

Below is a list of these spaces together with a brief description of what they offer:

- Emily Wilding Davison Building, second floor
  The second floor of the new library building, opening in September 2017, contains a dedicated study area for postgraduate students. The building is open for use twenty-four hours a day.

- International Building Common Room, room IN030 (below Café Jules)
  This room is conveniently placed on campus and within easy reach of most academic buildings and the Students' Union. IN030 offers good computer facilities with seventeen PCs, a DVD/CD ROM burner and scanning/printing facilities. There are also some easy chairs. The room is available for use twenty-four hours a day with a card-swap/code system for out-of-hour access (code provided by the Computer Centre). Please be aware that some sessions around research skills training may be running in IN030 (dates are advertised).

- Founders Common Room, Founders East, second floor, room FE241
  Code to enter can be obtained at the Security desk, Founders reception, by showing the College Card (as a way of proving to be a PG student). The Common Room has tables, chairs and sofas. There is also one computer and printer and wireless internet access. The kitchen area includes a fridge, microwave, kettle and toaster with shared cutlery.

- Arts Building, second floor, room AS17
  Fifteen online PCs DVD/CD ROM with burner Scanning/printing facilities. The room is open to all students (PG and UG) during normal office hours and to Postgraduates and Staff between 7pm and 7am (please obtain code from the Computer Centre).

- Highfield Common Room
  The room is for those living in postgraduate accommodation on the Highfield site. It can be booked through the reception at Highfield. The room offers easy chairs, TV and video, and food- and drink-vending machines. The room must be vacated by 11pm.

- The Doctoral Hub
  The Doctoral Hub, located on the ground floor of the International Building, affords both work and social space for research students. It offers 24-hour swipe card access, coin operated lockers, work space, networked desktop terminals (a number of which have Sibelius installed on them), a printer, as well as a small kitchen with hot water, sink and fridge.

14.3 Practice Rooms

Practice rooms are situated in the Woodlands Building and Cottage (the house down the drive from the Department). A room in Woodlands is available for ensemble rehearsals by way of a booking system through the Performance Manager. In the interests of security and personal safety, access to Woodlands is by means of the student’s RCS card, which operates during the hours 06.00 – midnight daily. Full access to the Woodlands practice rooms is restricted at present to Music students and Music Department staff; although by special arrangement members of certain... ensembles may be given off-peak access. Almost all rooms contain a piano; and all rooms in Woodlands Building have mirrors. Please treat the practice rooms and the instruments and equipment they contain with care and respect. Pianos and other keyboard instruments should not be moved about any of the rooms: this can lead to damage and disturbs the tuning. Eating and drinking are not allowed in the practice rooms, nor are students permitted to engage in any teaching of their own there (whether of College students or those from outside RHUL).

Room 001 in Wettons Terrace also acts as a small recital room, and is available for some rehearsals by arrangement, but only when it does not clash with or disrupt teaching in the Department. The Picture Gallery is not normally available for practice and nor is the Boilerhouse Auditorium unless in exceptional circumstances.

Specialist studio facilities in the North Tower include audio/video studios for composition, film music and ethnomusicology, and two rooms housing a gamelan and a large collection of world music instruments. Enquiries about the studio facilities should be addressed to Mr Chris White; enquiries about the gamelan and instrument collection should be addressed to Dr Henry Stobart.

Access to the North Tower studios and world music rooms is restricted to Music students taking studio based courses and Music Department staff (contact the Department Office).

14.4 The Library

The library is housed in the Emily Wilding Davison Building. Details, including Library Search, dedicated subject guides and opening times can be found online from the library home page: http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/library/home.aspx

There are plenty of study areas and bookable rooms to carry out group work as well as many areas to work on your own, including a dedicated postgraduate reading room on the 2nd floor. The Library contains a large number of PCs and has laptops to borrow to use in other study areas.

If you cannot find the specific items that you require in the library, it is possible to gain access to the online resources of Senate House Library as well as access to use the library’s physical collections or other university libraries. You can obtain further information on this here: https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/library/usingourlibraries/otherlibraries/using-other-libraries.aspx

The Information Consultant for your Department is Mrs. Debbie Phillips who can be contacted at Tel: +44 (0)1784 414065 and Deborah.phillips@rhul.ac.uk.

The Library provides a range of training sessions, as well as one to one sessions, designed to enhance your existing library and research skills. These are available in both class-based and self-study formats. For information on available sessions and to book a place, go to: https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/library/helpandsupport/researchsupport/researchsupport.aspx

14.5 Research Support

The Research Support Team in the Library provides support on research information including copyright, Open Access publishing, developing your research information profile and useful services. The team can also provide advice for meeting research funders’ requirements regarding Open Access.

The team works with the Information Consultants to provide support throughout the research information cycle, from researching bids through to searching and accessing information for articles, books and other outputs through to submission of the PhD thesis and future career plans.
Royal Holloway theses are also available via Ethos which is the British Library’s electronic theses service which contains approximately 400,000 records of UK theses including 160,000 available for immediate download of the full text (http://ethos.bl.uk)

The Team also offers training sessions and are very happy to provide advice. More information and contact details can be found at https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/library/researchsupport/researchsupport.aspx.

You will also have access to the following libraries:

- Senate House Library (Malet Street, London, WC1E 7HU. Tel: 020 7862 8461; http://www.ull.ac.uk). This is the central library of the University of London, where you can borrow up to twelve books with a library ticket (http://www.senatehouselibrary.ac.uk/membership/join/) which you can obtain using your RHUL College ID card.

- The British Library (96 Euston Road, London, NW1 2DB. Tel: 020 7412 7000; http://www.bl.uk). The British Library is the national collection and holds copies of all books published in the UK and Ireland, alongside an extensive collection from other countries. It also has an impressive collection of medieval and modern manuscripts. A Reader Pass http://www.bl.uk/reshelp/inrrooms/stp/register/howreg/howtoregister.html will be issued subject to your need to see specific items in the collections. Other libraries or sources may be more appropriate to your research and British Library staff will advise you accordingly. Further information is available online via http://www.bl.uk/reshelp/inrrooms/stp/refteam/refteam.html.

- SCONUL Access Scheme Royal Holloway participates in this national university access scheme which allows students to use other university libraries in the UK. Details of the application process can be found at: https://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/library/usingourlibraries/otherlibraries/sconulaccess.aspx

14.6 Careers information

The College has a Careers & Employability Service, housed in the Horton Building, which is open to any student during normal College hours. http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/careers/home.aspx.

14.7 Entering the Profession

Careers guidance is available from a student’s supervisor/adviser and from the College Careers Centre (see 14.6 above). Depending on students’ ambitions, there are a number of things we can do to help: for example, as noted above, we are currently using advanced postgraduate students in various teaching capacities, and often we have useful contacts that can lead to full- or part-time work on a temporary or permanent basis. In addition, the Department runs an annual Careers Workshop, and occasionally incorporates a careers element into other events.

It is in students’ interest to attend academic conferences. The annual Royal Musical Association’s Research Students’ Conference is usually held in December or January; the RMA also organises one-day conferences in London and elsewhere; specialist international conferences on music of various eras, or other themed conferences, can be particularly rewarding. Check the notice board for news of relevant events or the ‘Golden Pages’ on the Music Department website. Ethnomusicologists will wish to consider joining the British Forum for Ethnomusicology and analysts the Society for Music Analysis, societies which offer a similar range of events and opportunities. It is expected that composers will be seeking outlets for their compositions, possibly in connection with the BMIC.

Advanced postgraduate students will be thinking about presenting papers at conferences and study days or otherwise getting their work heard. Similarly, such students will be starting to think about publishing articles, scores etc. These projects are best discussed by the student and supervisor, but the Director of Graduate Studies will also be happy to offer general advice on these and other related matters. Where support (in any sense) has been offered by the Department in any publication, it is customary to acknowledge it formally in print; indeed, it is a condition of any financial support that it is so acknowledged.

15 Postgraduate Awards and Research Expenses

15.1 Awards
The College, through the Department, makes certain awards on a competitive basis for postgraduate studies. The College also has some funds for students facing financial difficulties during their course. See the Director of Graduate Studies.

Details of external postgraduate scholarships and grants (for example, from the Arts and Humanities Research Council) are posted or disseminated when available.

15.2 Research Expenses
The Department, through its Research Committee, allocates money to support research-related expenses for its full- or part-time postgraduate students. Research Committee funds should be regarded as a last resort. AHRC or TECHNE funded students should apply in the first instance for AHRC Research Training Support Grants and the TECHNE student development fund. Students should also apply for Royal Holloway’s Travel Awards as appropriate.

Within any one financial year (which runs from 1 August to 31 July), full-time MPhil and PhD students may request to spend up to £350 on research expenses funded by the Department. Part-time students may request up to £175 per annum. Research students co-supervised with another department are normally eligible for 50% of these allowances. Research students paying continuation fees (in the so-called ‘writing up year) are not normally eligible for funding.

Allowable costs include: travel to conferences or for research trips (e.g. fieldwork or to research libraries); conference fees; overnight accommodation on research-related trips; purchase of digital scans/microfilms from libraries; costs involved in performing or recording compositions. Costs must be as economical as possible. Please note that Royal Holloway’s Travel and Subsistence policy bans the use of AirBnB accommodation on college business.

Departmental research funds cannot be used for the following: equipment; software/hardware; subsistence (i.e. meal costs apart from those included in overnight accommodation); proofreading or other publication costs; books or scores. (Royal Holloway library will usually obtain books and scores for you; contact the Subject Liaison Librarian.)

Applications for research funding should be made on the form on the Department website, explaining why the expenses are essential for the student’s research and providing a full itemised budget. Please state what other sources of funding (whether college funds, external organisations, charities etc.) have been tapped. On completion by the student, this form is to be sent by email to the student’s supervisor for authorisation and subsequent forwarding to the Chair of the Research Committee. Applications are considered at meetings of the Research Committee (dates for 2017-18 are: 11 October 2017, 29 November 2017, 28 February 2018, 2 May 2018, 31 May 2018) and should be submitted to the Chair of Research Committee a week before the meeting. Advance applications are encouraged, although retrospective applications will also be considered (in which case students will have to bear financial responsibility for any costs that Research Committee cannot fund). Once an application has been approved, expenditure is reimbursed via the forms stipulated by Royal Holloway’s Finance Department (www.rhul.ac.uk/finance), which should be submitted to the Music Department Manager.

Students are encouraged to seek external research funding, although some of these sources require considerable advance planning. The Royal Musical Association runs an annual competition for research funds of up to around £250 (https://www.rma.ac.uk/awards/). The British Forum for Ethnomusicology offers awards for fieldwork costs (https://bfe.org.uk/awards). Awards from the Music & Letters Trust cover certain research-related costs, e.g. conference attendance, although not for ‘research towards a degree’ (https://academic.oup.com/ml/pages/grants). Composers should investigate awards from Sound and Music (http://soundandmusic.org), the Hinrichsen Foundation (http://www.hinrichsenfoundations.org.uk), and the PRS Foundation (http://www.prformusicfoundation.com). Performers may find useful advice on fund-raising from Making Music (https://www.makingmusic.org.uk).

MPhil/PhD students may wish to apply for student membership of the Royal Musical Association, British Forum for Ethnomusicology, Musicians’ Union, or Society for Music Analysis in order to benefit from reduced costs for attending the relevant professional conferences, their own personal copy of the journal, etc. To have this cost covered by the department, students may make an expenses claim directly to the Department Office. The membership cost does not come out of students’ research expenses allowance.

We also provide subsidised photocopying for full- and part-time postgraduate students on MPhil/PhD programmes (except Continuation Students) up to a cost of £40 per year (part-time students pro rata).

Postgraduate students who run reading or study groups within the department may apply for Research Committee funds to support the travel costs of a visiting speaker up to a maximum of £100, for events which are advertised to the whole department and which connect two or more sub-disciplines within the department’s postgraduate community. Applications should be made to Research Committee with a brief biography of the speaker and an explanation of how the event will enhance the department’s research environment and the specific training needs of postgraduates.

16 Performance

Royal Holloway University of London Department of Music offers a variety of thriving and exciting performance opportunities. The performance department is rapidly growing and developing: currently it offers a myriad of different ensembles of all shapes, sizes, and genres - a Symphony Orchestra, Chapel Choir, Chamber Orchestra, New Music Collective and variously can also offer an Andean Band, a Balkan Ensemble, a Korean Percussion Group and a Gamelan Orchestra (Gamelan Puloganti). Not all ensembles run every year. There is also a very popular student-run Big Band (Undergraduated) and Early Music Ensemble. Choral Music comprises the Royal Holloway Chorus, Founder’s Choir and renowned Chapel Choir; the Chapel Choir sings regularly at the College and further afield, broadcasts on the BBC and engages in tours abroad.

In addition, each year there are new student-run ensembles that vary depending on the tastes and interests of current members of the department. The Royal Holloway Music Society often oversee many of student-led music groups. To find out more, get to know your current Music Society committee and they will be more than happy to point you in the right direction.

All of our students receive specialist guidance from not only our College-based experts but from a wide breadth of external professional artists and Ensembles-in-Residence. These include The Tippett Quartet, CHROMA ensemble, The King's Singers, London Mozart Players and the London Philharmonic Orchestra. We often host side-by-side opportunities for students to work alongside professionals and specialists in the field.

The College is an All-Steinway Institution and owns primarily Steinway and Steinway-designed instruments.

Auditions are held for the Symphony and Chamber Orchestras early in the first term and are open to all students of Royal Holloway. It is necessary to apply for orchestral audition times via the website - the Online Sign-up Form will be open from Monday 18th September, 2017. Applications close Saturday 23rd September and you will be notified of your audition slot the following day.

royalholloway.ac.uk/music

The Department offers opportunities to its students to perform concertos with one or other of its orchestras. Auditions are normally held towards the end of the second term for the following academic year.

16.1 Administration
The focal point of administration of all performance which takes place under the auspices of the Department is the Performance Manager, Concert Office, located in the departmental administrative office, room 004. In the interests of the efficient and successful running of performance, all administrative matters and other arrangements concerning performance should be directed to the Performance Manager.

Students are able to contribute to administration of performance through their membership of the Music Society.

The Music Society also provides an opportunity for students to gain valuable experience in various aspects of administration and prospective employers will clearly view involvement here in a positive light. The committee is elected annually, part in June and (to include incoming first-year students) part in October.

Wherever possible student conductors are also given opportunities to direct the Department ensembles during the year.

16.2 Concert Series 2017/18
The Department of Music at Royal Holloway University of London has a long history of providing the College and the wider community with a world-class annual Concert Series, featuring some of the finest performers from the UK and overseas and showcasing our talented students and staff. This year is no exception.

This year’s series shows off some of the finest orchestral repertoire and concerto soloists. Choral concerts hold a strong place in our tradition as do our instrumental ensembles-in-residence (Tippett Quartet and CHROMA) who make an enormous contribution to our music scene from the teaching room right through to the concert platform. Our student ensembles including Andean Band, Balkan Ensemble, Gamelan Puloganti, Early Music Ensemble and New Music Collective present highly original and insightful programmes and we are delighted to welcome back alumni and staff in the series. Our Chamber Orchestra and Chapel Choir perform at St. John’s Smith Square in London alongside the London Mozart Players on 31st January.

This is a sample of what’s on offer during this packed season and remember, all our events are FREE for students, staff and alumni of Royal Holloway. For full listing, to keep up to date with additions to the programme and to reserve your ticket, please see royalholloway.ac.uk/music/events

16.3 Instruments
The Department’s stock of instruments includes the pianos in the staff, teaching and practice rooms in the Department and the pianos in the performance venues of the Picture Gallery, the Auditorium of the Windsor Building and the Boilerhouse Auditorium; two harpsichords, a clavichord, and a fortepiano. In addition, the Department commissioned a new harpsichord and recently purchased a brand new set of orchestral percussion, a new double bass, a baritone saxophone and a vibraphone. The harpsichords should be used only with prior permission of Professor Stephen Rose or Mr Rupert Gough. The percussion instruments should be used only with prior permission of the Performance Manager.

The Department also has a large collection of other instruments and accessories, including tuned and untuned percussion, string instruments, ‘unusual’ wind instruments (including cor anglais and bass clarinet), plus various historic wind and string instruments (including a chest of viols). The collection of non-Western instruments includes a gamelan, various Andean folk instruments and a Korean percussion set. In special circumstances, instruments are available for loan with the approval of the Performance Manager. It need hardly be said that all instruments should be treated with the utmost care.

The organs in the College Chapel and at St Paul’s Church, Egham, are available only to those taking organ lessons. Enquiries should be addressed to Rupert Gough, Director of Choral Music and College Organist.

17 Health and Safety Information

17.1 Code of practice on harassment for students
The College is committed to upholding the dignity of the individual and recognizes that harassment can be a source of great stress to an individual. Personal harassment can seriously harm working, learning and social conditions and will be regarded and treated seriously. This could include grounds for disciplinary action, and possibly the termination of registration as a student.

The College’s Code of Practice on Personal Harassment for Students is available online via http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/ecampus/onlinestudenthandbook.aspx and should be read in conjunction with The Student Disciplinary Regulations and The Student Complaints Procedure.

17.2 Lone working policy and procedures
The College has a ‘Lone Working Policy and Procedure’ that can be found at http://www.royalholloway.ac.uk/iquad/services/healthandsafety/policiesandprocedures/loneworking.aspx.

The principles and guidance around lone working are often highly applicable to the nature of postgraduate research and the variety of activities this might involve. As such, awareness and planning around any lone working you may be required to undertake are essential.

Lone working is intended to cover all work proposed to be undertaken alone where the risk to the lone worker may be increased either by the work itself, or by the lack of on-hand support should something go wrong.
Lone working can occur:

- During normal working hours at an isolated location within the normal workplace.
- When working outside of normal working hours.

Under either of these circumstances, the College’s guidance on lone working on campus will apply. Normal working hours are defined as:

During Academic Terms: Monday – Friday 08:00 – 18.00
Outside of Academic Terms: Monday – Friday 08:00 – 17.00

Work undertaken at weekends, bank holidays and when the College is closed (i.e. discretionary days) will be considered outside of normal hours.

Any health and safety concerns should be brought to the attention of the Departmental Health and Safety Coordinator or the College Health and Safety Office. It is likely that most activities will take place on College premises. However, the principles contained in the above section will apply to students undertaking duties off campus.

18  Equal Opportunities Statement and College Codes of Practice

18.1  Equal opportunities statement

The University of London was established to provide education on the basis of merit above and without regard to race, creed or political belief and was the first university in the United Kingdom to admit women to its degrees.
