

Getting Here

By Car: The College is on the A30, 19 miles from central London and a mile south-west of the town of Egham.

Directions from the M25: Exit at Junction 13, follow the A30 west (signposted Bagshot and Camberley). Continue on the A30 up Egham Hill; the main entrance is on the left immediately after the second footbridge.

Directions from the west: Leave the M3 at Junction 3 north and follow the A30 towards Staines and London. Continue on the A30 with Virginia Water lake on your left; go straight through the set of traffic lights and the main entrance will be on your right.

By Train: It takes 40 minutes to get to Egham from Waterloo and there are 2-4 trains every hour. It takes 40 minutes to get to Egham from Reading and there are four trains every hour. For help planning your journey visit www.nationalrail.co.uk

When you get to the station...

Bus: There is a College bus service which runs between Egham railway station and the campus and this journey is free for UCAS day visitors. Turn left out of the station by the playing fields for the bus stop.

Walk: Campus is approximately 20 minutes by foot. Turn right out of the station, walking towards the traffic lights and turn left. Follow the road to the large roundabout and turn left up Egham Hill. Continue walking up Egham Hill, the main entrance is on the left immediately after the second footbridge.

Taxi: There is a taxi rank at the station. Fares to campus are approximately £7.

Car parking

On your arrival, our marshals will direct you to available parking spaces. Please note that UCAS days are held on working days at our campus and parking could be limited on certain dates.

Local area

Why not give yourself enough time to explore the local area and get a feel for what it's like to live nearby? This is where many of our students live in their second and final years.

Egham Town Centre: 20 minutes' walk from the campus, Egham town has a variety of shops, services, restaurants and a supermarket.

Englefield Green: 5 minutes' walk from the campus, Englefield Green has a village feel with convenient shops, restaurants, takeaways and pubs, local amenities, churches and community groups.

Staines-upon-Thames: 15 minutes by car/bus or 5 minutes by train from Egham, Staines has high street shops and department stores, a cinema, leisure centre and bars and restaurants.

Windsor Town: 20 minutes by bus or car, Windsor is a popular location for students with great shopping and attractions such as Windsor Castle, one of the official residences of the royal family.

London: Students can enjoy all the attractions of central London, approximately 40 minutes from Egham by train.

UCAS Visit Days 2012/13

Further information

Admissions and UK Recruitment
Royal Holloway, University of London
Egham, Surrey, TW20 0EX

T: 01784 443399

F: 01784 473662

liaison-office@rhul.ac.uk

www.rhul.ac.uk

6600 11/12

Royal Holloway
University of London

Welcome to your UCAS Visit Day

A UCAS visit day is the ideal opportunity for you to find out more about your chosen course, meet staff in their departments and ask questions. We hope the information contained here will help you make the most of your visit and we look forward to welcoming you to the University.

General Programme

Arrival and Information Point:
10am-3pm | Windsor Building Foyer (see map)
When you arrive please make your way to the Windsor building where you can collect your information for the day. Please note, some departments may wish you to register directly with them, so please check your programme insert.

Also visit here for general information, advice for international students, the Students' Union, sports, directions and college publications. This is also where our campus tours leave from during the day. Tea and coffee will be available here for visitors.

Information Point: Student Finance
10am-2pm | Windsor Building Foyer (see map)
Staff will be on hand to answer your questions about student fees, finance and College bursaries and scholarships.

Campus Tours

On the hour from 10am – 3pm | Windsor Building Foyer (see map).
Your chance to take a tour around the campus, including accommodation, with one of our current students. Tours leave from the Windsor Building Foyer. Some departments have organised their own campus tours, so please check your programme insert.

Halls of Residence

If you would just like to visit some of our accommodation our student ambassadors will show you a selection of study rooms. Please come and see us at the general information point for more details.

Note: See insert for your departmental programme for the day.

Parents and guests

Parents and guests are welcome to attend these optional sessions in the afternoon. Some departments have additional activities for parents and guests, so please check your programme insert for further information.

Midweek Music Concert

1.15pm | College Chapel (see map)
Come and hear the renowned Choir of Royal Holloway in the beautiful setting of the College Chapel. The concerts are free of charge and informal, allowing visitors to come and go as your schedule allows.

Famous Royal Holloway Picture Collection Picture Gallery (see map)

An opportunity to view Thomas Holloway's world famous art collection and meet with some of our student ambassadors who can tell you the 'tales' behind the paintings. Opening hours will be posted outside the Picture Gallery and at the general information point.

Informal music

1.50pm-2.20pm | Picture Gallery (see map)
On selected UCAS visit days* guests will be treated to an array of informal music featuring some of our very own musical talent. While listening to the music you will be able to enjoy a free cup of tea or coffee with staff and students being on hand for you to chat to.

*Wednesday 5 December, 23 January, 13 February and 6 March

Picturing the past: History of Royal Holloway and its Picture Collection

2.30pm | Windsor Building Foyer (see map)
A talk on the fascinating history of the two pioneering institutions which make up Royal Holloway will be followed by a selection of highlights from the world renowned Victorian Picture Collection.

Key
	Talks and information points
	Campus tours
	Places to eat
	Parking
	Halls of residence
	Other buildings
	Careers Service
	College Chapel
	Picture Gallery
	Sports Centre
	Windsor Building

Free wifi available on campus during UCAS days

For the location of your departmental talks and activities, please refer to your programme insert.