RSPB

Community Action Partner

The Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB)

Aim: The RSPB is the UK charity working to secure a healthy environment for birds and other wildlife, helping to create a better world for us all. They are the largest wildlife conservation organisation in Europe with over one million members. Wildlife and the environment face many threats and the RSPB focuses its work on the species and habitats that are in the greatest danger. Areas of their work include; climate Change, water resources, fisheries, forestry and education.

Role: These can range from projects such as fundraising volunteers, conservation volunteers, (on reserves) event assistant volunteers and community outreach volunteers.

Training: Every RSPB volunteer receives a full induction and tailored training for the role they will be doing. Volunteers are also supported and supervised on an ongoing basis by an allocated member of staff.

Location: Within the London area.

Times: Fundraising Volunteers - home based and very flexible. Conservation Volunteers - weekly or even regularly. Event Assistant - weekends. Community Outreach Volunteers - daytimes.

CRB: No CRB check is required.

Application: All volunteers must be registered as Community Action volunteers. To do so, visit <http://www.rhul.ac.uk/services/volunteering/register.html>
