Slough Museum

Aim: Slough Museum opened to the public in 1986 with an ambition to facilitate greater awareness of and engagement with local through the provision of a Museum in Slough. Our mission is to inspire, engage, and educate through imaginative and inclusive programming and displays in Slough's past, present and future

Role: Volunteer roles include manning the visitor reception, helping visitors get the most out of their visit, supporting learning activities, and helping with the general maintenance of the Museum and shop. The Museum is always looking for new volunteers and is currently particularly looking for volunteers to support family learning activities during the school holidays.

Training: All volunteers are trained in the role that they undertake, from front of house to supporting family learning activities. This training is usually delivered by an experienced volunteer and all volunteers are supported and supervised by the Museum's Curator

Times: Slough Museum is open Wednesday-Saturday, 11.30am-4.00pm.
