The National Trust at Osterley Park

Aim: To protect special places forever, for everyone. Osterley Park is a spectacular mansion surrounded by gardens, park and farmland, and is one of the last surviving country estates in London.

Roles: Osterley Park offers a range of roles to take part in.

- Room stewards: an important role that both enhances the security of the property and the public's enjoyment of it.
- Raffle Ticket Seller: a fundraising activity that raises money for Osterley Park's projects.
- Gardeners: helping staff to upkeep, protect and develop the garden.
- Ranger(s) helping staff: implementing conservation at the property and helping visitors to enjoy and understand Osterley
- Education Assistant: helping people of all ages to learn from the rich educational resources available at Osterley Park.

Training: Each volunteer will be introduced to the department, staff and other volunteers, by the line manager. Health and safety briefings and appropriate training will be provided. Volunteers are always supervised by staff directly or at a distance, as appropriate.

Location: Isleworth, Middlesex.

Times: The time commitment varies with each role as every department is different and each require volunteers on different days

All project volunteers must be registered as Community Action Volunteers.

DBS: No DBS disclosure is required

Other: Disabled access varies, e.g. access to the House is via stairs. For further details on transport contact Community Partner.
